Palatine man guilty under Heights law, says Mt. Pros. jury

Harry F. Graff, Palatine, who was arrested on February 25, by Officer Johnson, of Arlington Heights police force, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct was declared guilty on both charges in the court of Judge Gould Saturday afternoon by a jury of Mt. Prospect business men and citizens, which fixed fines of $5 and $20 respectively.

The case was taken to Judge Gould on a change of venue from Judge Neumann, Arlington Heights magistrate. It has special significance because the defendant is the plaintiff in a $50,000 suit against Arlington Seating Co., two of its employees, Officer Johnson and Judge Neumann, charging false arrest.

Serving on the jury were Norbert Huecker, gas station proprietor; Arthur Claus, 105 N. Lancaster; Roy Wille, building material; John Appalar, Prospect Heights; Herbert VanDriel, drugist; and Philip Jeuck, Illinois Range.

Edwin Lange, accepted as the sixth juror by the prosecution was excused by the defense because Judge Neumann, one of the defendants in the $50,000 suit, cut his hair. "We all get pretty much attached to our barbers and beauty parlors," said Estelle M. Wells, attorney for the defendant as she excused Lange.

Mr. Jeuck "walked" into a juror's job. When asked how he happened to enter the court room, said, "I just came in, looking for Mr. VanDriel."

Hugo J. Thal, Arlington Hts. village attorney handled the prosecution. Witnesses called by him were Chief Skoog, Officers Oscar Johnson, John Firnbach, Ora C. Melbourne, and Forrest Davis, village clerk.

The various officers testified that Graff was intoxicated and that after being placed in a cell had raised a disturbance.

Called as defense witnesses were Harry Graff, the defendant and the following employees of Graff, Edna Federwitz, Ralph Caceja, John S. Hinnitt, Gilbert Busse, a business acquaintance, was also a witness.

Johnson claimed that he made the arrest because Graff was not in proper condition to operate an auto. Graff claimed that he had only a few drinks and was perfectly sober. Johnson claimed that no person had asked him to arrest Graff.

Ben Micklevitz, a tavern keeper, did not appear as a witness, although he had been subpoenaed.

Young traffic violators 'tell it to the judge'

It was teen-age time in Judge Neumann's police court in Arlington Heights Wednesday, April 21, as two seventeen-year-old boys told their speeding stories.

Victor Heimsoth, 7 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, said he was speeding 50 miles per hour in a 30 m.p.h. zone because he "was in a hurry to get home."

The youth was stopped Friday, April 16, on State road at 7 p.m. as he sped 20 miles over the limit from Sigwalt to Fairview.

"Do you think a few minutes saved in getting home is worth risking life and limb?" Judge Neumann asked the boy.

Since it was a first offense, fine was cut to $5 and $3 court costs, or half the court's usual charge of 50 cents per mile over the speed limit.

"I think you've learned your lesson," the judge concluded, "and I hope you take advantage of my leniency. Don't let me see you in this court again."

The second teen-ager, Clare Baker, 17, of 116 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, was arrested April 13 at 9:20 p.m. for reckless driving.

He was driving north on State road and turned east making an appropriate stop, arresting officer Melbourne related.

"Then he cut in front of a car and I chased him, but was slowed up because of heavy traffic. The boy turned on Kensington road and old Northwest highway, taking the corners at right angles."

The judge reminded the boy "it was pretty dangerous business playing cowboy with an auto, especially with three other persons in the car."

He continued the case until May 26, ordering the boy to do his traveling by foot until then.

St. James school wins dental health award

St. James School of Arlington Heights has achieved the unique distinction of being the first school in the Chicago area to have 100 per cent of its pupils free from dental decay. Eighty-eight per cent of school pupils in Chicago have dental decay. The record of St. James School is impressive in the face of widespread dental disease.

In a special ceremony to be held at 11 a. m. Friday, April 23, Dr. Edwin W. Baumann, vice president of the Chicago Dental Society, will present a handsome certificate of distinguished effort in behalf of the Illinois state dental society and the Illinois department of public health.

SPECIAL GUESTS have been invited to participate in the ceremony and a sound motion picture, "Winkie the Watchman" will be shown by the Chicago Dental Society.

St. James is taught by the School Sisters of St. Francis and the principal is Sister Mary. Reverend George Stier is the parish priest.

St. James has established an enviable mark at which other local schools are expected to aim. Arlington Heights dentists for a number of years have worked tirelessly in attempting to raise the level of dental health of school children. Active in this year's program were Drs. Eugene Payne, Howard Dunn, Harrie Hall, Cyrus S. Hill, Paul Bosman, and Edwin Baumann.

Reverend Stier is unstinting in his praise of Sister Mary, the teachers and especially the parents who followed through in securing necessary dental care.

St. Peter church discusses new building plans

The Planning Committee of St. Peter Lutheran church, headed by Mr. Wm. F. Neumann, presented far-reaching plans for a new building program before a special meeting of the congregation last Sunday afternoon.

An encouraging discussion ensued and a decision was reached to present these plans to the church council together with representatives of every organization within the congregation in the near future.

An architect shall be present who will prepare a detailed sketch of the proposed building.

The building plans under discussion concern themselves with the entire plant at St. Peter church, namely with the church edifice, recreation building and school, and call for an expenditure of approximately $250,000.

Hutchinson, Chicago, was in court to answer charges of reckless driving and running through 3 stop lights on Northwest highway April 18 at 12:40 a.m.

Pleading guilty, Pyferoen said "we were coming from a party and were in a hurry to get to Wauconda."

"Joyriding is no excuse," Judge Neumann stated. "I'm fining you $5 for the first stop light, $10 for the second and $15 for the third, plus $3 court costs."

Two out of town speeders from Wisconsin, who did not appear in court forfeited $7 and $10 bond to increase village revenue.

Clarence Miller Jr., 201 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, paid $10 for speeding in a 30 mile zone on Northwest highway April 21, and Merrill G. Hapke, Route 2, Palatine, paid $6 for running through a stop sign at State and Euclid.

The judge recently received a letter from Cook county traffic safety commission suggesting adoption of uniform fines to cooperate in the new traffic safety program being set up in Cook county.

The schedule suggests that for speeding 50 mph in a 30 mph, a $16 fine should be set for first offense and $42 for second, plus court costs. "I charged the Heimsoth boy $11 less than the suggested fine, according to this schedule," Neumann pointed out, "but I may set stiffer fines if more teen-agers take advantage of the law."

"I'm looking forward to the month of May, also, when the new parking signs are installed," the judge added. "According to the suggested rates, the court should charge $3 for a first offense, $5 for second and $10 for third."

Lt. Melvin Preston killed in air crash at Honshu, Japan

Word was received Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Preston of Arlington Heights, that their son, First Lieutenant Melvin R. Preston, was killed when his P-51 fighter plane crashed in Honshu, Japan, April 14. Details of the accident have not as yet been received by Lt. Preston's parents.

At the time of the accident Lt. Preston was serving as a P-51 "Mustang" fighter pilot and Wing leader for the 7th Fighter Squadron of the 49th Fighter group which fought its way to Japan in company with such combat aces as Major James Watkins and Major Ira Bong.

Lt. Preston graduated from the Arlington Heights township high school in 1941, and then worked in Chicago, where he was employed by General Electric. He entered the Air Force at Sheppard Field, Texas, graduating as a twin-engine pilot from the Army Flying School at Seymour, Freeman, Indiana.

The lieutenant later checked out in B-24 Liberator bombers which he flew both at Muroc Air Base, Calif., and Tonopah Air Base, Nevada, between 1944 and 1946. In May of 1946 Preston hopped an Air Transport Command plane for Japan, where, after various brief assignments throughout the Far East, he was transferred to Chitose, where he was stationed at the time of his accident.

In addition to his primary duty as a fighter pilot, Lt. Preston also acted in the administrative capacity of Base TIAE, and Public Information officer.

Arlington buys new Chevrolet truck

Bids were opened Monday night on a new truck for the water department. Lattof Motor Sales offered to furnish a half ton truck for $1200 or a 3/4 ton truck for $1322, with the provision that the old truck be traded in at $100.

Geo. C. Poole, Inc. submitted bids of $1332.45 and $1493.20 on Ford trucks. On motion of Alderman Luehring the 3/4 Chevrolet truck was purchased.

The aldermen thought they could sell the old truck thru Paddock Publications for more than $100. Mr. Lattof said that his bid would stand without trade-in if the old truck is withheld from sale for three months.

Des Plaines Fur Company Succeeds Edward Haugen

The Des Plaines Fur Co. has taken over the Edward Haugen fur business at 690 Lee st., Des Plaines and besides the retail sales business will operate a complete fur service. This includes modern cold storage vaults, insurance, fur cleaning, remodeling and repairing by skilled workmen, according to the management.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any dumping of ashes, garbage, tin cans or rubbish within the Arlington Heights village limits, except at the village dump is prohibited by ordinance and any violators apprehended will be arrested. This notice pertains particularly to vacant lots at Sigwalt st. and Mitchell ave.; Dunton ave. and Thomas st.; Evergreen ave. between Grove and South streets; and in Scarsdale subdivision. Severe penalties will result if violators are arrested. Help to keep the village clean and healthy. Watch this paper for rubbish clean-up by village May 3-4 and 6-7.

Arlington taxpayers to pay additional 29%; Mt. Pros. 21%

Tax rate figures for Wheeling and Elk Grove townships were released by County Clerk Michael J. Flynn Tuesday. In addition to announcing the rates of individual taxing bodies, he also gave the total rate that will govern the tax bills of residents of the different school districts. Those rates provide an overall picture as to the extent of the increase that faces the individual tax payer.

Taxing bodies are faced with rising costs as well as individuals. An increase in tax rates was expected. In Elk Grove and Wheeling townships they range from 11 to 29 per cent, the largest increase being in District 25, and the least in district 24 the taxpayers of which will only pay an increase of 11 per cent.

Taxing bodies spread their 1947 levies last summer. Those levies have passed through the county offices and are now being reflected in the 1947 tax bills that will soon be in the hands of the tax payers. The increase in assessed valuations have not been as great as many taxing bodies expected, which in turn has raised tax rates. As an example the assessed valuation of Arlington Heights elementary school district of over seventeen million dollars was increased in assessed value by only $170,000.

INCREASE in population and school enrollment has raised operating and building costs in a much greater proportion than the increase in taxable property, which partly explains big increases. A comparison of the rates of all taxing bodies in the two townships appears in the next column.

Superior Judge John F. Bolton issued an injunction restraining County Treasurer Louis E. Nelson from collecting penalties until June 1, one month after the legal first installment deadline. A further extension may be necessary.

By 1960, Arlington Heights township high school, with the addition of five building units to the standing structure, will accommodate 2500 high school students from Wheeling and Elk Grove townships and will encompass approximately 20 acres.

This fact was relayed to more than 750 parents and adult visitors at the Arlington Heights township high school open house Thursday, April 15, at which Elmer F. Laurin, president of the school board, explained to guests future thinking of the board.

"At present the high school can accommodate approximately 800 students. However, with the full opening by fall, 1948, of the first wing in the expansion scheme, student capacity will be increased to 1,000," Laurin told visitors.

The first addition includes 4 science classrooms and five vocational shops, including wood-working, drafting, agriculture, metal trades and band. When the new band room is built, the present one will be converted to auto mechanics or electric training.

Actual construction of the first unit was started September 1946, and the wing will be put to full use in September, 1948.

Visitors who later toured the new building were reminded of progress made in educational equipment since "grandma's day" by the use of figured wall paper in one of the science rooms, venetian blinds, acid-resistant desk tops and drift-wood finished furniture.

Units two and three include a new gymnasium which will seat 4,500 and a swimming pool. These additions will be built on the northwest side of the present building "as soon as we can get out of the blueprint stage."

The fourth and fifth additions, on the south side of the building, will form the east and west wings of the main unit. Included here will be a sound-proof bandroom, little theatre, library and special classrooms.

Laurin also told the audience that the board recently acquired an area the size of 2 square city blocks for conversion to a playground and recreation park.

The area, bounded by Euclid, Hawthorne, Salem and Ridge avenues, will be graded within two months and the board hopes to see complete use of the park, including the installation of recreation facilities, by September, 1948.

The park will provide tennis, basketball, badminton, courts, practice football field, baseball diamond, 2 softball diamonds, soccer field and parking area.

"Two months ago the board also bought two lots on the corner of Euclid and Walnut and (Continued on Page 5)

Spelling contest winners in county meet Saturday

Township spelling contests were held last week in Wheeling, Northfield, Palatine and Elk Grove townships. First and second winners and alternates will compete in a county meet Saturday, April 24, at the county superintendent's office, Chicago, at 3:30 a. m.

Contestants will be accompanied by their teachers and should wear their delegate badges. Parents are also welcome to witness the contest from the gallery.

Spelling will continue until first, second, and third ranking contestants are determined. Medals (gold, silver, bronze) will be awarded to the three winning contestants—Banners (first, second and third place) to the three winning schools.

Six schools participated in Wheeling township contest Thursday, April 8, at Wheeling school. Other five schools included in this meet were Prospect Heights, Merrill, Strong, Wilson and Feenhanville schools.

First place went to Jimmy Stenberg, 12, Mt. Prospect, grade 8; second, Douglas Dale Basch, 12, 303 Elm street, Prospect Heights, grade 7; first alternate, Mary Kingsley, 11, Arlington Heights, grade 6; and second alternate, Lois Brenns, 13, Mt. Prospect, grade 8.

Palatine Township

In Palatine township, a contest was held at the grade school Monday, April 5. Winners were Sandra Springwell, 13, grade 8, first place; James Lemke, 13, grade 8, second; Jane Dodson, 12, grade 7, first alternate; and Robert Heide, 7, second alternate. All students are from Palatine.

Northfield Township

The spelling contest in Northfield township was held Friday, April 9, at Northbrook grade school. James E. Nowak, 11, grade 7, of Northbrook won first place; Gay Stodder, 13, grade 8, of Northbrook, second; Charles Barnes, 12, grade 7, of Northbrook, first alternate; and Gail Waldorf, 13, grade 8, of Northbrook, second alternate.

This Saturday the Dorcas Aid of the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church will hold a bake sale, at the Public Service store, corner Campbell and Vail streets. The sale will begin at 2:00 p. m.

Grade students to give band concert Friday

A band concert by 90 pupils from North and South schools, Arlington Heights, will be presented at the school auditorium Friday, April 23, at 8 p.m.

The 90 children are in a beginning band group and this is their second concert.

The group, composed of students from fourth through eighth grade, will be directed by Harold Brunt, band instructor, and will play 12 selections.

Assisting group will be the South school mixed glee club of 50 seventh and eighth graders who will sing four selections.

Soloists for the evening will be Warren Doellefeld, baritone horn; Dan Walton, trombone; Leroy Frederichs, cornet; Dick McAuliffe, bass; Roberta Landmeier, saxophone; Edward Wolfe, tonette; and Marshall Sherril, clarinet.

The South school instrumental ensemble of ten will also be featured on two numbers, and a selection on drums will be played by a trio of Bill Gregory, Chuck Knapp and Tom Cleaver.

Tickets for the affair are thirty cents and proceeds will go for band equipment.

Oppose use of Memorial fund for flood lights

The possible use of the Arlington Heights $10,000 war memorial fund for the purchase of flood lights in Recreation park received a setback Monday night when the merits of the plan were discussed by the Lions club.

Due to the objections registered by some of the members who thought that the fund is in the hands of trustees who do not have the right to change its purpose, the club will not further press the installation, except to urge the park district to include the lights in their first possible improvement program.

County approves plat of Arlington Meadows

Plat of subdivision of Arlington Meadows in Wheeling township was approved Tuesday by the County Board. The property is triangular in shape and is bounded by Euclid avenue on the north and extends west 9,861 feet from Rand avenue on the east.

The County Board Tuesday accepted the plat of subdivision of property in Wheeling township. The tract is bounded on the north by Hintz road, on the east by Cornell avenue and extends 220 feet south and 620 feet west. Approval was recommended by Thomas J. Corcoran, chief of the County map department.

Cubs plan kite day this Sunday

The next event on the busy spring schedule of the Arlington Heights Cub Pack 232 is a Kite Day, scheduled for 2:30 p. m., Sunday, April 25, at Recreation Park.

Between 50 and 75 Cub Scouts are expected to demonstrate their kite flying skill at this event, with all arrangements in charge of a committee headed by Richard Fox. Cubs, of course, are to build their own kites.

Parents are invited to the event not only to watch the kite demonstrations, but also to get acquainted with Cub members and leaders of the various Arlington Heights dens, in the first outdoor Cub program of the season.

ONE OF THE largest crowds ever to attend a regular pack meeting in Arlington Heights was present Friday night at the first annual stunt night, in the South school gymnasium. Den 12, under the leadership of Den 12, Rowland Laughlin, won the first award of a handsome statuette for its interpretation of a radio comedy quiz. Second place went to Den 8, which presented a minstrel show, and third to Den 11, with a re-enactment of the Midnight Ride of Paul Revere.

George LaRoi, chairman of the pack committee, announced that eight new den dads have accepted places in the Cub organization for the coming year. They are Edgar Blair, Pat McDonald, Fred Hacker, James B. Murphy, James Colvin, Louis Neundorff, Virgil Rolfs and Anthony Lagod.

Daylight saving time starts Sunday

It is again time to remind local householders of the one hour loss in sleep scheduled for this Sunday morning, April 25, when daylight saving time goes into effect. Officially, local residents should get up at 2 a.m. and move their clocks ahead one hour.

Practically, it is a good idea merely to see that both man and wife do not move the clock ahead for a double loss.

REINERT, Odum and Tex Sallee, Odum's long-time friend and engineer on the China expedition and his previous spin around the world, flew "The Explorer" Friday, April 16, from Douglas field to St. Louis, Mo., for repairs.

Board to make no restrictions to skating rink

S. M. Murphy and T. A. Williams, residents of Arlington Park, whose homes are a block from the proposed roller skating rink on Northwest highway, appeared before Arlington Heights board Monday night asking if it were possible to prevent the establishment of the rink in that locality.

They stated they purchased homes without any knowledge they were erected in a district zoned for business purposes.

They were advised that nothing can be done under existing village ordinances. The suggestion was made to them that if they and other residents of the area desired to keep further business establishments off the highway, a proper petition for a rezoning should be prepared.

Business mens' dinner Monday 'on the house'

Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce wants to play host to as many business men as possible Monday night, but the "acceptance" cards have been coming in rather slow, says Secretary Douglas Brown.

"There are no strings tied to the dinner," says President Hinz. "We are not trying to sell anyone anything, except a renewal of the good neighborly spirit between business men."

So, boys, mail that card at once, or phone Doug Brown at 666 and tell him that you will be on hand. The ladies of St. Peter church will serve one of their famous dinners. There will be no dinner check.

Police to start arrests for 1947 license tags

Arlington Heights police are issuing tickets for autoists whose cars do not display 1948 village stickers.

The new parking signs are expected to arrive May 8. An ordinance authorizing fines for those who over-park was passed Monday night and appears in this issue. The first offense will cost $1, plus court costs. There will probably be no cafeteria court settlements.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 18, was:
"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT"

The Golden Text was:
"There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus" (1 Tim. 2: 5).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible:

"And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. Then came the Jews round him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
Jesus answered them, I told you,
and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, ye bear witness of me . . . I and my Father are one" (John 10: 23-25, 30).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"That saying of our Master, 'I and my Father are one, separated him from the scholastic theology of the rabbis. His better understanding of God was a rebuttal to them. . . . The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done. . . .
Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life, and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage" (pp. 315, 202, 18).

An Ordinance

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE TIME OF PARKING VEHICLES IN THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, AND REGULATING THE MANNER OF PARKING ON STREETS AND AVENUES AND IN OTHER PUBLIC PARKING AREAS.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS:
SECTION 1. That, except on Sunday, it shall be unlawful to park or permit to remain any vehicle for a period longer than that specified on parking signs covering the location in question, between the hours of 8:00 o'clock A.M. and 6:00 o'clock P.M., on those portions of the streets and avenues of this Village on which signs have been placed or installed fixing the time limit on parking in such location or area.

SECTION 2. The President and Board of Trustees of the Village may from time to time designate parts of streets and avenues for locations within which the parking of automobiles shall be limited as to time, and shall fix the time limit for such parking within the limits of such designated areas, and shall cause signs to be placed and installed at the limits of such areas and at such other places within such areas as may be necessary to advise the public of such parking locations, which signs shall prescribe the maximum time limit for the parking of vehicles within such areas or part of areas for which a time limit has been established.

SECTION 3. The Board of Trustees or such officials or employees of the Village as the Board of Trustees may direct shall provide and maintain marks or markings at or near the curbs or upon the pavement designating the parking space for both diagonal and parallel parking within such areas.

SECTION 4. The President and Board of Trustees are hereby given authority to designate other areas, not included within the public streets and avenues of the Village, upon first obtaining the consent of the owners or persons in control of such areas, as public parking places, and to provide signs and markings for the parking of vehicles therein.

SECTION 5. All vehicles parking in areas designated for diagonal parking shall be placed as nearly as practical midway between the lines or markers designating such parking space for each individual vehicle.

SECTION 6. All vehicles parking in areas designated for parallel parking shall be headed in the direction of the traffic on that side of the street, and in such manner that both right side wheels shall not be more than six (6) inches from the curb.

SECTION 7. Any person parking a vehicle, either within the areas designated by the President and Board of Trustees for limited parking in the manner provided for in this ordinance or within any area which may be designated as a public parking lot, who shall park a vehicle in such a manner that it will overlap or straddle the markings designating a parking space, or so close to such markings as to interfere with the proper use of the adjoining parking space, or who shall violate any of the other provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Dollar ($1.00) nor more than Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars.

SECTION 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

SECTION 9. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication.
PASSED this 19th day of April, A.D. 1948.

Forrest F. Davis,
Village Clerk.
APPROVED this 19th day of April, A.D. 1948.
Albert W. Goedke,
President.

Rheumatoid Arthritis

by SIEBURG DRUG CO., Inc.
A chronic joint disease known as rheumatoid arthritis occurs most frequently in women in their twenties and thirties. The disease begins slowly and several years may pass before the stiffness and soreness of the joints seems at all serious. Swelling of the joints is a part of the disease, also.
Fatigue, loss of appetite, and loss of weight are often the patient's physical reaction. Like all forms of rheumatism, this disease is seldom fatal, but does cause some degree of disability.
Early attention by your doctor offers the greatest hope for the control or improvement of any illness.
Medicine, when prescribed by your doctor can do much to relieve pain, and restore health. Have a trusted pharmacist fill your prescription.

Mrs. Walter Robbins of 176 South York st., Bensenville, appeared as a prize winning contestant on "Hint Hunt," popular CBS audience participation show.

Mrs. Robbins told Chuck Acree, the "Head Hunter," "To make attractive and delicious toasted cheese sandwiches use your waffle iron. Use thin sliced bread, thick sliced American or cheddar cheese and butter your bread on the outside, so it won't stick. Bake in your waffle iron until beautifully browned."

For this tasty hint Mrs. Robbins was presented with a Bulova watch as a gift from "Hint Hunt."

The social meeting of Merle

Guild unit, the ALA was held at Legion hall Tuesday evening. A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Leona Wisersky, Arlington Heights, who is to become a bride in May. An elegantly decorated sprinkling can with streamers attached to the many gifts, occupied a conspicuous place in the hall. After the opening of packages Miss Wisersky was led by the hostess, Mae Jorgenson, to her place at the table, where small dolls representing a bride and her attendants were in position to march up the aisle.

Favors, candles and spring flowers added to the enjoyment of the delicious refreshments. A special guest at the shower was Camille Peroutka.

A rummage sale will be held at Legion hall Saturday, May 1, from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon. Posters telling of the sale will be placed in store windows throughout Arlington Heights.

Beverley Lemke and Merlin Kost married

The marriage ceremony of Miss Beverley J. Lemke and Merlin D. Kost was performed Saturday by Rev. L. V. Stephan at the St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church in Arlington Heights. Miss Lemke is the daughter of Mrs. Della Lemke and Mr. Kost is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kost, all of Arlington Heights.

During the ceremony Mary Ann Laeske sang, "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by A. Bathje. The church altar was decorated with candles and baskets of white stock.

Miss Lemke was attired in a white crepe dress, styled with fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a train. Her gown was set off with a short sweep veil, fingertip length, fastened to a beaded cap. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and sweetpeas.

Maid of honor for the bride was Miss Melba Behrens, her cousin, who wore a colonial style gown of green crepe and carried a bouquet of talisman roses and carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Howard A. Kamps as best man, with Kenneth Busse and James Wiese serving as ushers.

Mrs. Lemke was dressed in a navy blue crepe dress, set off with blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother also wore a navy blue dress, with black accessories and

Growth of Arlington park system told PTA

Arlington Heights Park Board members presented a picture of the park system from its beginning June 9, 1925, with acquisition of the railroad parks and growth to the reality of today at the Arlington Heights PTA meeting, Tuesday, April 20.

Robert Beatty, president, introduced board members who outlined the legal status of the board, its functions, accomplishments, and plans for the future.

Nat Burfiend led a discussion of legal aspects and history of the Arlington board. Although the park board is the youngest governing body, one twentieth of our state statutes relate to park management. In addition to the five commissioners prescribed by law and elected by popular ballot for six year terms, Park Superintendent Al Bloom, Secretary Elmer Crane and Treasurer Glen Benson are appointed and serve with the board.

THE TREASURER is bonded and must deposit all monies in an approved bank; his yearly audit must be published in the local paper so all tax payers may be familiar with expenditures.

A park board is a complete governing body, submitting bond issues for referendum, levying taxes and providing police protection for the properties and persons using facilities.

In addition to the railroad parks leased in 1925, Arlington Heights, now has South park adjoining the South school grounds, Memorial park, and Recreational park. In addition, three unimproved acres in Arlington Ridge have been acquired at no additional cost to taxpayers.

Ed Wahl, board recreation chairman, told of the first recreation program, sponsored by civic groups on a budget of $150.00, $15.00 of which was allocated for equipment. Parents furnished transportation for children who wished to swim in the pool at Barrington.

IN 1933 Recreation park was dedicated and the field house and swimming pool were opened to the public. Recreation park cost Arlington Heights approximately $75,000. At present values, replacement cost has been estimated at $348,000.

The field house houses the youth center and some income is derived from rentals to private groups. In summer, tennis courts, soft ball diamonds and wading pool are in constant demand. Group instruction in swimming is provided free of charge by a paid director who has part and full time assistants.

With present equipment, 90% of the program is necessarily a physical development program. The park board hopes to foster a municipal band and a dramatic group if popular demand warrants such a program.

Walter Kroeber stressed the fact that the park board is one of few taxing bodies in Arlington Heights with a balance. $20,000 are earmarked for retiring of bonds, and $3300 remains of the maintenance budget. According to Kroeber, the town pool is second to none in the state. Water is tested three times daily at the pool and a sample sent to an outside laboratory once a week. When water from the pool comes through the filtering system, it is pure enough to drink.

ROBT BEATTY quoted 1946 tax levy for the board at approximately 19c per $100.00 valuation and predicted the next levy will be 21c. In other words less than 8% of the tax bill is spent by the park board.

Looking to the future, the board has been cooperating with park planners and working closely with the school boards. Surveys show a trend toward the suburbs, and the suburban

Illinois OES to start trust fund for home maintenance

The Order of the Eastern Star of Illinois, with a membership of 150,000, has voted to establish an endowment trust fund for permanent maintenance of their two homes, one a refuge for aged women at Rockford and the other a sanitarium for incurables at Macon. Both are for Eastern Star members.

The fund is to be raised by general pledges or gifts, memorial gifts and bequests, and donations and contributions as stipulated by wills. Because this is strictly a charitable trust fund, all contributions will be entitled to tax exemption.

It is the desire of the Worthy Grand Matron of Illinois, Mrs. Clara W. Francis, that all members of the Order participate in this worthwhile project. All donations will be handled through the committee appointed by the worthy grand matron in each chapter. Representing Arlington Heights chapter are Mrs. Gertrude Milligan, Mrs. Agnes Olson and Elmer Crane. Any amount of money is acceptable. William T. Morgan of Chicago is state chairman of this project.

The worthy matron and patron of the local chapter, Dr. and Mrs.

Paul C. Geisel, urge every member of their chapter to take part in this wonderful charity fund. Close to 100 women are in residence at the pleasant home in Rockford. The Macon sanitarium to which an addition was completed last year, is now caring for more than 100.

Kappa Deltas meet

The Kappa Deltas of the Northwest Suburban area met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Welsh in Mt. Prospect. Mrs. George Edgumbe was the assistant hostess.

In the absence of the president the vice president, Mrs. Stanley Myers, conducted the short business meeting. Plans were formulated to do sewing for the Children's Hospital in Chicago, which is connected with the University of Illinois.

Officers for the ensuing year were also elected at this time. They are: president, Phyllis Lines; Barrington; vice president, Frances Edgumbe, Mt. Prospect; secretary, Mary Haase, Arlington Heights; treasurer, Elizabeth Nedwed, Des Plaines; editor, Helen Stockton, Park Ridge.

After the business meeting Mrs. Herman Carr gave an enjoyable book review of Bill Maudlin's book, "Back Home."

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Schenberger.

Dolores Goebbert and William Staat say 'I do'

Miss Dolores Goebbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Goebbert of Arlington Heights and William Staat, son of Mrs. Martha Staat of Des Plaines, repeated their solemn vows of marriage at the St. John Ev. Lutheran church, Elk Grove, last Saturday. Rev. F. L. Gehrs tied the nuptial knot.

During the ceremony Mrs. Lois Carlson sang "Oh Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Paul Meeske at the organ. The couple repeated their vows before the palm banked altar, which also was adorned with bouquets of carnations and snapdragons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in a gown of Bur Mel satin, styled with sweetheart neckline, the fitted bodice being trimmed with seed pearl and rhinestones; and a full skirt ending in a long train. She also wore a fingertip veil, which was held in place with an orange blossom trimmed cap. Her showery bouquet was made from carnations, roses and st. anis. Pearls, which were a gift of the groom, completed her costume.

The bride was attended by her sister, Marian Goebbert, who served as maid of honor. She was attired in a lilac gown, that was fashioned with double cap sleeves and a peplum ending in a bustle. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations, roses and daisies. Bridesmaids were Helen Staat, the groom's sister, and Ruth Selmer. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor in yellow and aqua respectively, and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations, roses and yellow daisies. All the bride's attendants wore rhinestone necklaces, which the bride had given them as a gift.

Joanne Pohlman was the flower girl and was dressed identically to the maid of honor. She carried a basket of flowers. Roger Goebbert acted as ring bearer.

Best man for the groom was Ralph Mensching, with Howard Behrens, cousin of the groom and Alfred Goebbert, Jr., brother of the bride, serving as ushers.

The bride's mother chose to wear a navy blue dress for her daughter's wedding, while the groom's mother wore a print dress. Both had a corsage of pink carnations and roses.

Three hundred and fifty guests attended the reception at the Wheeling school hall. The couple's honeymoon consisted of a short motor trip.

After May 3 Mr. and Mrs. Staat will be at home at 1539 Ashland ave., Des Plaines.

Sixth shower honors Arlington bride-to-be

Miss June Nagel was surprised for the sixth time at a shower given her by Miss Myrtle Flueger of Chicago.

June was presented with a beautiful card table set and many non-sensical articles by the guests, all former co-workers of June's.

Games were played and a delicious luncheon was enjoyed by everyone.

A tall doll bride stood in the center of the table and the nut cups were tall silk and lace garden hats.

June will become the bride of Irvin Carnehl of Park Ridge Saturday, April 24, at 7 p. m., at St. Peter Ev. Luth. church.

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stanton, Rand road, Palatine, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dolores, to Ray Harms of Arlington Heights.

Bridal showers honor Mildred Gosch

Miss Mildred Gosch of Arlington Heights, who will become the bride of Wilfred Busse, May 1, at the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church, has been honored recently at four bridal showers.

The first shower was held March 24 and was given by Miss Sylvia Busse, sister of the bridegroom-to-be. Gifts for the miscellaneous shower were attached to ribbon streamers which flowed from the spout of a beautiful white sprinkling can. After the opening of gifts, sandwiches and cake were served to the 20 guests.

Mrs. William Freitag of Park Ridge was hostess to another shower for the bride-to-be April 6. Thirty relatives and friends watched Miss Gosch open the gifts, which were placed in front of the fireplace which was decorated with an umbrella trimmed in aqua and white. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

April 9 marked the date of another shower, which was given at the Joost farm in Bensenville by Mrs. Ruth Gosch and Mrs. Pearl Joost. The gifts were opened under an aqua, white and yellow umbrella. A luncheon was served to 35 guests following the opening of gifts.

A fourth shower was held last Friday at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Meier, Foundry road, Arlington Heights. Aqua and yellow decorations again predominated. Bunco was played after the many lovely gifts were opened. The serving of barbecues and cake completed the evening.

Rummage sale

Park Ridge chapter 797 OES invites all women to attend a rummage sale to be held at the Masonic temple, 115 N. North-west Highway, Park Ridge, April 30, starting at 9:00 a. m. A variety of articles will be available.

Chosen most popular at Missouri State

JoAnn Koester, of Mt. Prospect, has been chosen "most popular girl on the campus" at Mo. State college, Warrensburg, Mo., where she is a freshman. A girl was entered in the contest from each educational and social organization on the campus, and JoAnn was nominated by her sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma.

JoAnn and her sister, Jean, were well known at Arlington Heights high school for their musical ability. Jean also attends Missouri State, where she is in her junior year. Both are majoring in music.

At the Rhetor Ball, so-named after the school yearbook, to be held on Friday, April 23, JoAnn will receive her crown.

VFW to install officers, award victory medals

The U. S. Navy recruiting station will present victory medals to all ex-Navy personnel in this area at a meeting at the Arlington Heights field house Friday, April 23, at 8 p.m.

Veterans who have honorable discharge papers with them will receive the medals from Dave Murphy, gunners mate 1/c. All vets who plan to be present should call Arlington Heights 330 or 173-R. Those requesting the medals do not need to be members of the post to receive them.

The regular meeting of the VFW will be held at 8:30 p.m. at the field house April 23.

Joint installation of officers will take place Sunday, April 25, at 2:30 p.m. at the field house.

Edwin Murphy of Des Plaines will be master of ceremonies and S. Greshner, past commander of Arlington Heights post, will be installing officer. Mayor Albert W. Goedke of Arlington Heights will be guest of honor.

Colors of the following visiting posts will be flown: American Legion Merie Guild Post 208, Mt. Prospect VFW, Palatine VFW, Park Ridge VFW, Cook County Registrar Grenier will be host.

The Ladies auxiliary of Arlington Post 981 will install officers at 2 p.m.

Principal and teacher attend child study conference in St. Louis

Mrs. Argola Walk, principal of South school, and Mrs. Agnes Skadberg, first grade teacher at North school, are attending a childhood education convention in St. Louis, Mo., this week from April 19 through 23.

Expenses are being paid by the school district.

"Although our first plan was to send the two school principals to the conference, the building principals felt that a teacher representative should be one of the two delegates," Superintendent Clabaugh stated.

Mrs. Skadberg, who teaches at the North school, was elected by the teachers, and Mrs. Walk became the other delegate to represent the South school.

The first day will be allotted to visiting 48 public and private schools of the city. In two morning sessions, teachers and parents will discuss the needs of children from nursery thru intermediate grades and the education of their teachers.

There also will be three one-hour consultation sessions in six areas to give conference registrants individual counsel on problems or products in such areas as school buildings and equipment, audio-visual materials, writing for publication, record keeping and grouping of children, legislation and church school problems.

four lots on Miller avenue east of Walnut." Laurin informed visitors, "which also will be used in the future expansion program."

After Mr. Laurin's speech and welcoming address, Principal LeRoy Knoepfel explained to adult guests the work of the faculty philosophy committee and its continuous study on student academic needs and how to acquire the improvements.

"In studying curriculum development," Knoepfel explained, "the committee is keeping in mind that the technical content of a subject as well as the approach to teaching it must be geared to meet the needs of modern society."

"The faculty as a group has come a long way from the out-dated school-marm and school master," the principal pointed out, "but many courses still are antiquated in subject content."

The philosophy committee consists of Miss Jean Nelson, chairman, Cyril Waters, Mrs. Hazel Faulkner, Miss Donna Marie Volz, R. M. Conrad and Nelson Lowry. Handbooks containing statistics on curriculum, administration and school services compiled by the committee were distributed at the open house.

H. L. Slickemyer, guidance director and dean of boys, third speaker of the evening, explained the new testing program at the high school and how it tied in with guidance work.

"Some students have greater mental capacities than others," he told the audience, "and if students of varying abilities are placed in the same class, the needs of both ends are somewhat neglected for the average ability student."

"This leads to giving classwork too difficult for some students, causing them to feel they are failures and not challenging the abilities of the superior students."

If the school is to help the three kinds of students, he noted, it is necessary to have information about their capacities, part of which is obtained from previous grades, but most of which is received from mental, achievement and personality tests.

Slickemyer then described some of the tests given to students including aptitude tests, the latter which is given only at request of student or teacher.

"Through proper use of the testing program, we can lessen the amount of student failures who might go through life putting round plugs in square holes."

After the speeches, visitors saw an exhibit of more than 300 paintings by art students at the school and were taken on a tour of the main and new building. Guides for the tour were honor society students, including John Fellingham, Edwin Svihart, Orville Schaeffer, Phoebe Ann Ellis, Dorothy Schlemmer, Marilyn Schlemmer and Ronald Wiegand.

Also, Irene Lattof, Bob Hinds, Andrea Kennedy, Bill Laslev, Jean Baldwin, Dorothy Cosman, Ingeborg Nienhold, Albert Claus, Nancy Nichols and Joan Moss.

Also, Ann Lyman, Ken Bork, Ken Gronert, Dick Durland, Bob Daggett, Joan Cahill, Arthur Seitz, Pat Kule and Bob Cowen.

Parents also had the opportunity to become acquainted with the teachers at the high school at the social period, during which time coffee and cake was served in the cafeteria under the direction of Miss Mary Handlin, cafeteria manager.

During the evening the high school band, under the direction of Frederick Schmoer, played several selections and J. D. Bryson, director of the mixed chorus, led community singing. He was assisted at the piano by C. L. Griffith, one of the visiting parents from Arlington Heights, and Nelson Lowry, science department head, who ran the projector.

RAMBLE INN 'N OUTINGS

A brilliant success! That's what you say about the April Showers Dance held last Saturday night. Well, if you can say no more because you can't put into words the fun you had, maybe I will try it. The April showers was the climax to the 1947-48 Ramble Inn season. And it was certainly a climatic climax. The band decorations, floor show, and atmosphere were beyond expression. So now that I have failed to adequately express the wonder of the A. S. Dance, I guess I'll just chalk it up to the list of impossible things and thank the people who made the April Showers Dance possible.

Ken Bork, president, Bonnie Peterson, secretary, Carol Dempsey, vice-president and Dick Spratt, treasurer were the planners for this event. But we mustn't forget Bug Unger who did the decorations. Also, here's thanks to all those others who helped make the dance. And while we're passing out bouquets we would be stupid to forget our energetic and enterprising directors, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

'The Patsy' play next week at Lutheran school

An all-Lutheran cast will present "The Patsy," a comedy produced by Samuel French, at St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, Friday, April 30, and Sunday, May 2. The curtain will rise at 8:00 p. m. on this three-act story of several mixed-up romances.

The play, "The Patsy," was selected by William Gerken, Mrs. John Pfingston, Martin Heidorn and Carl Weinrich. Chairman of the property committee is Edwin Guenther, while Mrs. Albert Kehe is in charge of tickets. The director is Miss Virginia Warner, a Minnesota university graduate.

The cast is as follows: Patsy Harrington, Miss Elaine Kehe; Tony Anderson, Carl Weinrich; Grace Harrington, Mrs. June Nebel; Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Gert Pfingston; Mr. Harrington, William Gerken; Billy Caldwell, Al Orcutt; Sadie, Mrs. Eber Cline; O'Flaherty, Eber Cline; and Trip Busty, Art Beier.

County denies rezoning at Rand and Elmhurst

Rezoning from a farming to a B-2 (business, tavern and amusement district) for two properties located between Rand and Elmhurst roads in Wheeling township were denied Tuesday by the County Board.

Frank S. LaBounty, 3048 North Laramie avenue, Chicago, owner of one acre located 400 feet north of Rand and Elmhurst sought to establish a tourist camp with six cabins and a central building for laundry and toilet facilities. At a public hearing, 20 persons objected to the reclassification.

The Sinclair Refining Company, owner of a half-acre of property located about 400 feet north of Rand and Elmhurst roads intersection stated it had no plans to develop the portion of their property still in a farming district.

The zoning board recommended denial of the application as the ordinance states that where a district boundary divides a property, it may all be used for uses in either zoning. In this case, all the property could be used for a business, tavern and entertainment use if reclassified.

Wallace supporters in drive to get third party on ballot in November

Resolving to put Henry Wallace and the state slate on the ballot in November, over 3,000 delegates pledged themselves to fulfill the legal requirements of the election law, at the first convention of the Progressive Party in Illinois held in Chicago recently.

The convention set May 1 as the day on which a petition campaign will be launched to gather the 25,000 signatures needed to put Wallace on the ballot. At least 200 signatures from each of 50 counties must be collected in order to meet legal requirements.

Steps to block the placing of a Wallace ticket on the ballot this November failed when the State Supreme Court upheld its legality.

To discuss school consolidation

The survey committee is calling a meeting to discuss the consolidation of the non-high school district of Elk Grove township with the Arlington Heights high school. It will be held May 4, at 8:00 p. m., at the school in District 59.

The non-high school district is that part of Elk Grove township located south of Dempster.

To reinstate Cook County fair on Lake front

An elaborate edition of a great American institution—the county fair—will return to the Chicago area late next summer for the first time in 15 years when the Cook County Fair is staged in mammoth Soldier Field and its extensive adjoining areas from August 27 through September 6.

The Cook County Fair, scaled to proportions never before approached by any other county enterprise in America, will offer premium exhibits for which thousands of dollars in prize money will be given.

IN ADDITION, there will be more than four miles of commercial, industrial, agricultural and other exhibition booths, as well as the largest entertainment midway in the great lake front show area since the World's Fair of 1933-34.

Premium exhibits will include livestock, agriculture, women's activities, a junior department and a honey show.

Heading the list of commercial exhibits will be a 1948 automobile show. Other divisions will show heavy farm equipment and industrial and retail exhibits. All will be housed under the stands of Soldier Field as a safeguard against inclement weather.

THE COOK county fair was originally held on the Dean property at the northeast end of Palatine. Thousands of people attended the annual sessions the end of each summer, until about 1930, when the fair moved to new grounds at 1st and North avenues.

After a few years at what is now Maywood Park race track for trotters, the venture folded.

Four Arlington dogs take honors in the Cleveland Dog show

Carrvale Kennel's Sgt. Terrence, Irish Setter owned by Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Carr of Arlington Heights, breezed through for the honor of best of winners at the Cleveland, Ohio, Dog Show, which has added five points toward his championship.

Other dogs winning honors at the same show were Honey Dubonnet Remembrance, Irish setter owned by Mrs. Frank Cory of DeVon Kennels, Arlington Hts., who got winners bitch and also received five points toward her championship; Claybank's Buckshot, owned by H. G. Garner of Denhaven Kennels, who won best of winners in the Pointers class, and received two points; and Dr. and Mrs. Carr's setter, Charles River Juno, who took fourth place in his class.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste.

TWENTY-EIGHT SCHOOLS SET FOR RELAYS SATURDAY

MAC SAYS BY GERALD MCELROY

Saturday the largest entry list in Palatine Relays history will be on hand to make it one of the best meets. Reports coming in seem to indicate there will be several very strong teams in each class. Niles, last year's Palatine Relays and Northeast conference champs, is again a strong contender. Arlington Heights has much strength in the running events and has team depth which is needed for relay success. Naperville can be depended upon to make their usual strong bid. De Kalb is touted to be the dark horse and a possible new champ. Batavia strong in "B" class.

In "B" class the entry form sent in by Batavia has championship written all over it in fine marks indicated for boys in the individual events. Batavia has entered all events with three boys listed for almost all the individual events. We are certain one thing, Batavia will be in there close to the top. Mooseheart may be another top class "B" team. Palatine has the edge on other Northwest conference schools this year and that should mean the Pirates would be among the top four. Quite a number of "B" class teams cannot be contenders because they only enter a few events, concentrating their strength to insure winning a few medals. Reports indicate that Geneva, who has won the most titles, will not be as good as usual.

DeKalb to be Class "A" dark horse Owen Nangle of the DeKalb Chronicle tells us to look out for DeKalb this year. Their sprinter Baker ran the 100 yard dash in :10.2 recently on a cold day. DeKalb has five boys who can run the 220 under 31. Woodruff, their broad jumper, has made 20 feet 10 inches. They have a very good 440 man who runs consistently under :54. Two shot putters consistently toss the 12 pound ball over 45 feet.

The catch is that it takes four boys for all the relay teams and the points for relays are weighted for twice as much as individual events. However, such information indicates that DeKalb will be in there contending for the top spot.

Wauconda district had heaviest receipts A report from the state office indicates that the Wauconda district basketball tournament had the highest gate receipts of any district in the state with a total take of $1,093.60. This speaks well for gate interest in this area. Of course the schools of the Wauconda district would all have been large for that classification anywhere except in this area.

Pinckneyville board loans coach a new car

When the Pinckneyville fans wanted to show their appreciation to Coach Thomas for the state cage championship and raised $2,000 to buy him a new car the state office stepped in and said no. In order to get around a state association ruling that the fans gave the car to the board of education, Nangle having a school garage to house the car the board loaned it to Coach Thomas. As far as we know the loan is for an indefinite and unknown period of time.

Waterman coach to Provise

Word comes that Joe Hartley, cage coach at Waterman for many years, has accepted a position at Provise high school in Maywood for next school year. Waterman has had outstanding teams under Hartley as well as his predecessors who moved up to Paris and East Aurora after making a reputation in the little school. There are a lot of good Northern Illinois coaching positions open this season. On the other hand there seem to be more coaches available than at any time in the past seven years.

Barrington nine wins three games

Barrington is off to a good start in baseball with three straight non-conference victories over Marengo, McHenry and Union. The Bronchos open the league season Friday at Wauconda and are slated to win. Ken Schuett, sophomore moundman, held Zion in check while Barrington won 6-4. Schuett and Hick pitched as the Bronchos came from behind to whip Marengo 21-19 in a nine inning slugfest. Hick did the hurling as Barrington defeated McHenry 7-5.

Cards plan full schedule of 18 cage games

That Arlington Heights high school has a full card of basketball games for next year despite the demise of the Northeast conference at the end of the present school year was revealed this week by athletic director H. W. Grace. Eighteen contests are included on the slate including home and home arrangements with four former Northeast schools, Niles, Leyden, Crystal Lake and Libertyville. Perennial contests with Palatine and Barrington are also included, plus games with Maine, Belvidere, Mooseheart and St. Edward of Elgin. NEWEST opponent for Coach Gene Bell's cagers for next year is Dundee in the opener, November 26. With the lack of regular league play next year, local officials have endeavored to card a good, though tough, schedule for the Heights squad. Two tournaments during the holidays are slated for the Arlington team, with the DeKalb meet running from December 27-30, and the four team Palatine affair in operation New Year's eve and night. With two more contests to be arranged, probably with Racine, Wisconsin, and a central Illinois team, the cage lineup will be set at the maximum number of games permitted. The football card was released a month ago, eight games being slated for the gridirers. COMPLETE card includes: Nov. 26, Dundee, there. Dec. 3, Niles, there. Dec. 14, Mooseheart, there. Dec. 17, Leyden, there. Dec. 27-30, DeKalb tourney. Dec. 31-Jan. 1, Palatine tourney. Jan. 7, Niles, here. Jan. 8, Barrington, here. Jan. 15, Crystal Lake, here. Jan. 21, St. Edward of Elgin, here. Jan. 22, Palatine, there. Jan. 28, Libertyville, there. Feb. 4, Leyden, there. Feb. 5, Belvidere, here. Feb. 11, Maine, here. Feb. 12, Barrington, there. Feb. 18, St. Edward of Elgin, there. Feb. 19, Crystal Lake, there. Feb. 25, Libertyville, here. Feb. 26, Palatine, here.

District golf meet at Arlington again

Coach Curtis Larsen, Arlington Heights golf mentor, has announced selection of the local school as host in district golf competition Saturday, May 8, for the third year in a row. The match will be played at Mt. Prospect country club, with more than 100 boys participating. Big change in plans for the event is the 10:30 starting time, instead of 7:30 as in previous years. Early morning dew also slows play of first string golfers for all schools. Complete plans of the meet will be released by Larsen within ten days.

Palatine beats Bensenville but loses to Niles

Palatine beat Bensenville 95-22 and lost to Niles 88 1/3 to 27 2/3 in a double dual track meet Tuesday afternoon. Cold weather cut the times. Best events and marks were 137 feet 5 inches in the discus by Spoo of Palatine, the tie at 5 feet 6 3/4 inches in the high jump by Steinbrink of Palatine and Hengler of Niles, and Niles' relay marks of :48.1 in the frosh relay and 1:38 in the varsity relay.

Jim Heiniger of Niles was high scorer with 20 1/2 points. Heiniger won three first and tied for another as well as running on the winning 880 relay team. Schrimpf of Niles was double winner in 440 and 880 while H. Siegel won the 100 yard dash and broad jump. Palatine's only first against Niles were by Spoo in the shot and discus. Bensenville's only firsts against Palatine were by Kurz in the 440 and Pittman in the shot. Steinbrink scored 16 1/2 points to top Palatine against Bensenville including three first places.

Ela wins opening NW baseball tilt

Ela trounced Wauconda in its Northwest Conference opening game, 14-3, blasting two Wauconda pitchers for fifteen hits. Jerry Wendt and Dick Tonne connected for triples. Salem and Prouty shared pitching chores for Ela, while Jack Wendt and Jack Seemann worked behind the plate. Wauconda's weak battery was not a good test of Ela's strength. This game was moved up from June 8. Ela and Grant have also moved up their June 11 contest to April 20.

Table with 3 columns: Team, Score, and other stats. Rows include Wauconda 3, Anderson 3, Blenkowski 3b, Olsinski 2b, Jaech 1f, Hanson 1f, Wirtz c, Russell c, Carey c, Weinberg p.

Card nine loses to Niles

Bill Robinson, starting his first game of the season, gave up 8 hits and went the route for Arlington. Eichberg went most of the way for the Trojans and fanned 9 batters, while his reliever, Biehn, struck out 2. Robinson downed 4 batters by strike outs. The locals had a golden opportunity to tally in the first when with no outs Bill Lancelotti was on third and Robinson second. However, Marv Berschet and Eugene Busse both went down swinging and Lefty Engel-

Niles good, but has strong competition in Class A; wide open race in Class B

Twenty eight schools and about 500 track athletes will converge on Palatine Saturday for the 16th running of the Palatine Relays. The entry list sets a new all time record for the meet. Schools in the meet for the first time are Princeton and Byron in "B" class. Argo returns to the meet after an absence of some six years. The "A" division of schools over 375 enrollment numbers 10 while there are 18 "B" class schools entered.

Niles and Antioch will be back to defend the titles won for the first time last year. Niles appears to have a strong team in "A" class but will have very stiff competition from Naperville, Arlington Heights and possibly DeKalb. Niles has two boys returning from an 880 relay team which set a new mark last year and this season's quartet of Permer, Heineinger, H. Siegel, and D. Siegel has been clocked in 1:36. DeKalb has three men who can run the 100 yard dash in under 1:06 and that guarantees a powerful 880 relay team. Arlington Heights has plenty of depth at all running events and may be the best balanced team in the meet. Naperville has two very good individual stars in Pickell, high jumper and pole vaulter, and Case, who last year ran the mile under 4:40. Naperville has much strength in field events. Their relay teams' strength is the real question as these events could double the individual events.

Wide open competition in "B" class this year "B" class is a wide open affair. Little is known of the schools outside the Northwest conference where Palatine has quite an edge. Batavia appears to have a well balanced team which may be the dark horse. Princeton is traveling a long way to the meet and not just for the ride you can be certain. Grant and Antioch both have a fair chance. With 18 schools in the "B" division, it may not take so many points to finish on top.

Berschet and Spoo have good chance in discus Locally two of the best boys in the Palatine Relays may be Berschet of Arlington and Spoo of Palatine, who are the leading contenders in the discus throw which this year will be a very strong event. Berschet will also be a shot put contender. Busse of Arlington and Stephan of Palatine might get a place in the broad jump if having one of their best days. Steinbrink is a high jump possibility for Palatine. Palatine's best relays will be the hurdle shuttles and the frosh-soph 440 event. The meet starts at 9:45 with five field events on the schedule. There is no charge for the morning session. The afternoon program starting at 1:00 includes relays in each class plus the mile and 100 yard dash. In all the relays the races will be run in heats against time due to the large number of entries.

Former Antioch coach is meet starter Officials at the meet will include Carl Wolfenbarger, starter; J. E. Stutzman, clerk of starts; Hale Hildebrandt, assistant clerk; Sam Elmdorf, H. W. Grace, M. Rose, Max Brady, Bob Pratt, and Sweeney, timers and judges of finish; G. A. McElroy, finish clerk; H. W. Stinson, awards; Clark Nangle, announcer; Bob Paddock, official scorer; Harris Helgeson, Leighton Mangles, Bob Stewart, Bruce Koester, Frank Gannon, George Gibson, and Gene Bell, judges of relay exchanges and curves; Herb Moehling, Marvin Plate, Ray Mills, Gordon Nielson, Milton Case, and Oscar Weide, guards and policing of grounds; Misses Mae Gibbs and Mercie Heise, ticket sales; Henrietta Wilkins, concession; and Marilyn Thomas, cafeteria.

Schools entered in the meet are as follows: Class (A) — Argo, Arlington Heights, Belvidere, Crystal Lake, Lake Forest, Leyden, Libertyville, Niles, Naperville, DeKalb.

Class "B" — Antioch, Barrington, Batavia, Bensenville, Byron, Geneva, Grant, Harvard, Honeogah, Marengo, Mooseheart, Palatine, Princeton, Sandwich, Somonauk, St. Charles, West Chicago, Woodstock.

The name "century plant" was given to a group of desert plants because it was mistakenly believed that they bloom only once in a hundred years. According to the World Book Encyclopedia, some varieties of the century plant flower every year, and others at longer periods, but none blooms so rarely as once in a hundred years.

Redwings join baseball league to start in June

Arlington Redwings have joined the Northern Illinois baseball league, according to an announcement by Ed Wahl, manager, after attending an organization meeting at Elgin Monday night. The Redwings have long been a local favorite, playing Sunday afternoons at Recreation Park, Arlington Heights, during the summer. The Redwings have usually played a free lance schedule before, ending with the Midwest league elimination. Under the new league setup interest in the team will be strengthened.

OTHER SQUADS in the league include Auto-Lite of Woodstock, St. Joe of North Chicago, Johnson Motors of Waukegan, Oak Park Merchants, and Elgin Athletic club. A straight schedule of ten games will be played, each team playing a home and home game with other clubs. The season will not open until the first Sunday in June.

The team finishing on top will be awarded the championship trophy. Added to this will be the O'Shaunsey play-offs, the winner to take a pot of $600. This will be decided by the first and second place teams playing in a post season game, and the third fourth place teams meeting. The winners of these two games will meet in a series, best two out of three games, for the $600 pot of gold.

THE PLAN is to name a commissioner for the league, one who is not connected in anyway with any of the clubs. At Oak Park a new stadium will be used which has a large seating capacity. It is the new Oak Park high school stadium. Elgin plans installation of lights this summer although it is not expected the lights will be used until next season.

High school bowlers end season

The Arlington Heights high school bowling league recently completed their season with a sweep, with the ten boys pictured above participating. Don Hesch won the sweep by virtue of a 513 series. Front row, left to right, Melvin Weidner, Jim Madson. Second row, left to right, Gerhart Dieninger, Dick Hoffman, Art Seityt. Back row, left to right, Don Neumann, Art Cameron, Don Hesch, Dick Wienrick, Dick Sturm.

Arlington frosh nine whitewashes Niles

Coach Gene Bell's freshman baseball squad won its initial encounter for Arlington Heights fans Tuesday afternoon, when they took the measure of Niles, 10-0. Eugene Wille allowed the Trojan yearlings just two hits, while the locals were totalling four safeties. The game, played at Arlington, was called at the end of the sixth by agreement. Boehning pitched for Niles, Meyer catching. Arlington didn't get a hit until the sixth inning, but held a 5-0 advantage by that time. Five more tallies raced across for the locals in the sixth frame when all four safeties were totalled by Bell's boys.

Bensenville track teams lose to Leyden, 81-27, 59-36

Bensenville track squad took it on the chin twice Thursday at the annual track meet at Leyden when the varsity succumbed, 81-27, while the frosh-sophos were falling, 59-36.

Pittman led the way for the locals with first in the shot and discus. He tossed the platter 123' 4" and put the shot 41' 5". Gaspar won the high hurdle event in 17.0.

For the yearlings, Baker coped the 220 in 2:20.5, and tied with Jones of Leyden in the high jump. Currie and Slick tied in the pole vault at 9'.

Niles tracksters trim Arlington

by MARVIN PRELLBERG
The Arlington Varsity tracksters made their debut in the 1948 cinder campaign in a rather sad manner, as they lost to a keen Niles bunch 67-47 in a dual meet last Wednesday at Niles.

Jim Heiniger was by far the outstanding star of the meet, as he racked up firsts in the pole vault, low hurdles, and high jump, seconds in the high hurdles and broad jump, and ran on the winning relay team.

Mary Berschet was Arlington's high scorer with 13 points by taking firsts in the weight divisions, both with good marks. He tossed the platter 141' 10" and put the shot 46' 6". In addition to that, he took a second in the high jump.

PERMER, the Trojan's sprint star, took both the 100 and 220 yard dash in excellent times of 10.4 and 2:23 seconds respectively.

After winning the 440, Schrimpf ran a beautiful 2:09.9 half mile to capture that for the Trojans.

The Cards have their first big meet coming up this Saturday in the Palatine Relays and will be out to notch this title if possible for Coach W. J. Creamer. On the 28th of April, the Cards engage in a triangular meet with Niles and Leyden at Niles.

Arlington takes two golf victories from Bensenville

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Coach Curtis Larsen's Arlington varsity and junior varsity golf teams came through with two victories over the Bensenville high duffers last Thursday, when the Cardinals varsity outpointed the Bisons 17-4 and the Jay Vees did likewise 10-5 on the Old Orchard golf links.

The play was hindered considerably by a stiff wind, but Veen Rascher pulled through with an eighteen hole total of 80 to lead the Arlington varsity squad to a convincing victory. Ralph Becker carded the next low total with an 84 to capture three points from Bob Thollander. This win gave the locals one victory and one defeat for the season.

Arlington's junior team won by a 10-5 decision to chalk up the first Jayvee win of the year against no losses. Tom Rowader, a freshman, led the locals with an 86. Shelby Stuart was the only Arlington boy to fall in full defeat, as he lost three points to his opponent, Masotti.

Arlington takes on last year's district champs, Highland Park, in its next match, Thursday, April 22, and meets Waukegan, who whipped the Cards in the opener on Monday the 26th at Arlington.

Some trees still stand, tho planted by Johnny Appleseed

At Fort Wayne, Indiana, in a little park on the bank of the old Wabash, Erie and Feeder Canal, stands a granite boulder surrounded by an iron fence, marking the grave of Johnny Appleseed. This was the nickname given that eccentric pioneer who spent 40 years wandering over Ohio and eastern Indiana, distributing appleseeds to the early settlers, planting apple orchards and nurseries in clearings, and preaching his Swedenborgian religion.

His real name was John Chapman, born at Leominster, Mass., Sept. 26, 1774. He died in Fort

Obituaries

Ernest Hauptmann

The final rites for Ernest Vincenz Hauptmann, 820 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, were held Sunday from the Karstens-Fairbanks chapel in Arlington Heights. Swenson was the reader and burial was in the Euclid Lawn cemetery.

Mr. Hauptmann was born November 30, 1884 at Meistersdorf, Bohemia-Austria. After his arrival in the United States in 1906, he established his residence in New York for a period of two years, then moving to Chicago.

In 1913 he united in marriage to Margaret Reil at the Episcopal church in Chicago by Rev. Mc Gann. Following their marriage they moved to Cambridge, Ohio, where they lived for two years. They then moved to Chicago, going from there to Elmwood Park where they lived for 7 1/2 years, after which they came to Arlington Heights, where they have lived for the past 13 years.

Mr. Hauptmann was by trade a China decorator, having learned this art in Europe, and was employed by the Kalita Art Studio in Chicago.

He died Thursday at his home at the age of 63 years, 4 months and 15 days.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Margaret; three children, Vincenz of New Jersey, Donald E., also of New Jersey, and Joy; five grandchildren; and one brother, Joseph.

Philippina Rupp

Funeral services for Philippina Rupp, N. State road, Arlington Heights, were held Wednesday from the St. James' Catholic church. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, Techny.

Mrs. Rupp, who has lived in Arlington Heights for 20 years, came to the United States at the age of 21. Her husband, Jacob, died in 1935. Mrs. Rupp died Saturday night at the Elmhurst hospital.

The deceased is survived by two nephews and four nieces.

Amelia Fulle

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Oehler chapel in Des Plaines for Mrs. Amelia Fulle of Des Plaines. Rev. R. K. Wobbe officiated and interment was in the Town of Maine cemetery.

Mrs. Fulle, nee Lagerhausen, was born near Effingham, Ill., December 23, 1868. When still a very small child she moved to Des Plaines with her family where she has remained all her life. Her husband, Frank Fulle, preceded her in death nine years ago. Mrs. Fulle died suddenly Saturday night at her home.

She leaves to mourn her death Wayne on March 18, 1845. Although never married, he was fanatical in his determination to make the wilderness, "a fit place for women and children."

IN 1800 he had a nursery and orchard near Pittsburgh, then a town of 1500, on the turnpike travelled by the stream of immigrants headed west. When they stopped at his spring to water their animals, he read to them from his religious books and gave them appleseeds from the pulp residue of a cider mill. Finally he loaded a canoe with seeds and started down the Ohio river, travelling up and down its tributaries and overland on foot to northern Ohio, everywhere planting and giving away appleseeds.

He usually wore an old coffee sack with holes cut for his head and arms, any cast-off clothing he could find—sometimes the tatters of three or four pairs of pants. On his head might be an old hat with no crown and, on old that, the battered tin pot in which he cooked his frugal meals. He would rarely eat with other people. Sometimes he wore one shoe, sometimes none, sometimes a shoe and a cast-off moccasin.

WHEN HE STOPPED over night at a settler's cabin or a frontier tavern, he stretched out on the floor in the evening and read to them from his testament and tracts. He slept on the floor or out-of-doors—never in a bed.

He had no home, but the last 15 years of his life were spent in western Ohio and eastern Indiana, and he died owning several pieces of land near Fort Wayne, each planted with apple trees, and an old gray mare. There are gnarled ancient apple trees still living that spring from his seed.

Four-year-old Stork Club, Jr., gains fame, to rate most popular among local students

by JOHN SHANLEY

Stand aside! A new baby has taken the place of the Junior Prom and Senior Ball as the favorite dance of the year in the eyes of the students of Arlington High. This startling fact was revealed recently in a poll taken among students by the members of the Radio Workshop class. The "Stork Club, Jr." annual semi-formal dance put on by the staff of the school newspaper, The Cardinal, is this new youngster, and it is only four years old. Just how has this infant won its way into the hearts of Arlingtonites in such a short time? Let me answer that question with a question. Wouldn't you relish spending an evening at a famous night-club? Of course you would, and in like manner, so would most of the students at A.H.T.H.S. But, because of various difficulties, the fulfilling of this wish is highly improbable in the case of high-schoolers. So—each year the Cardinal does its best to transport as much of the night club atmosphere as possible into Arlington High!

THE IDEA of such a project was originally conceived back in 1944 in the minds of two of the female staff members, Juanita Shelkop and Beverly Pink. The Cardinal being hard-pressed for funds, and having decided to put on a dance, was stumped when it came to the problem of something original which would draw people to the dance. Then, into the minds of these two brilliant and talented damsels, whose memories will be forever cherished in the hallowed halls of Arlington, flashed the same thought at the same instant. Why not put on a dance with a night-club motif? And as long as we're about it, why not pattern it after the biggest and best of them all, "The Stork Club?" The idea was received with tremendous enthusiasm. It was even decided that if the dance turned out to be a success, The Cardinal would make it an annual affair. The rest is history!

As the wheels of progress moved into high gear, the members of the staff became aware of the opportunity for their imaginations to run with suggestions for the decorations, refreshments, and particularly, the floor show. Of course, waiters were essential, as were menus written in French and an efficient head waiter. The man picked to handle this job was "Louie" Holmbeck, amiable and well-liked senior, and he did a wonderful job, as it turned out. In like manner, the refreshments, decorations and floor show were all handled with an efficiency and ingenuity hitherto unknown. All these things were co-ordinated by Juanita Shelkop and Bev Pink, originators of the idea. On the night of the dance, crowds of high schoolers and alumni alike flocked in to experience the thrill of a night club.

STILL, as spectacular as was this initial "Stork Club, Jr.," the ones of the following two years were more so. Decorations became more elaborate; refreshments, more refreshing; and the floor show, more entertaining. Patrons of the "Club" in those first three years saw a terrific variety of entertainment, including a hula-dancer, male chorus line, comedians, vocal duets, a jam session by a snappy trio, imitations and many more fine acts. The point I'm trying to make is that each year, the "Stork Club, Jr." has become more and more like its namesake in New York City, and the 1948 version was the biggest and best of all.

The man responsible for much of the success of the 1948 "Stork Club, Jr." strangely enough, was not a member of the Cardinal staff, or even a resident of this area. His name is Sherman Billingsly, owner of the original Stork Club in New York, and through his help, so many people applied for reservations beforehand, that the dance was moved into the largest quarters available, the gymnasium. When notified by Miss Louise Younger, Cardinal adviser, that the Cardinal was putting on a dance named after his club, Mr. Billingsly, wonderful and generous person that he is, sent a huge package containing actual men's suits, matches, coasters, postcards, covercharge cards, and favors from his club to the Cardinal to lend authenticity to the evening's program.

A FALSE ceiling of blue and black crepe paper was put up in the gym, coming to a peak above the center of the dance floor. Table centerpieces of sweet peas in blue vases decorated with four-inch black storks were especially prepared by the Handicraft Club, under the direction of Miss Leta McMillan. Tables were arranged in a semi-circle around the dance floor, facing the band. All patrons of the "Stork Club, Jr." entered from the stage, and because they had to descend to floor level to reach their tables, a pleasing illusion of depth was created. Each couple was announced by Carl Skoog dressed as an Easter bunny.

Refreshments were served directly to the tables by a crew of bustling white-clad waiters, each assigned to a certain section. Lois Harting, in a typical flower girl costume and flower tray, sold carnations to the guests. Cameramen from Community Camera Shop added further nightclub atmosphere. More than 300 people dined and danced and received menus and souvenirs of the "Stork Club" in the gym on the night of March 26. They were entertained by 40 minutes of floor show, as the 1948 "Stork Club, Jr." opened and closed with huge success.

AND THUS it is that what was originally an idea in the minds of two Arlington seniors has come to be. The Stork Club, Jr. has progressed through the years until it is now the most popular dance of the year. Thus, too, the members of the Cardinal staff hope it will continue to progress as the years go on. Who knows but what in 1950, some school will open up a new club under the title, "The Stork Club, Jr. Jr."

At Illinois

The Illinois Chapter of Farmhouse Fraternity celebrated its 43rd anniversary National Founders Day Sunday, April 18. Highlighting the events of the day was the address "Dividends" by D. Howard Doane, St. Louis, Mo., the man who originally conceived the idea of a fraternity for agricultural students.

Men elected to membership in Farmhouse Fraternity must maintain the highest moral, scholastic, and social standards. After three years of inactivity during the war, the Illinois chapter returned to campus in February 1946 and since that time has maintained the highest scholastic standing of the 55 fraternities on the University of Illinois campus.

John H. Bingham, of Arlington Heights, is now a member at the Illinois Chapter of Farmhouse Fraternity.

At Rollins

Victor Smedstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Smedstad of 202 N. Benton, Palatine, will take the role of Gaev in the Rollins College production of "The Cherry Orchard" April 27 through May 1.

The role will mark Smedstad's first stage appearance since his triumph as the father in the Rollins production of "The Barrets of Wimpole Street" in March. A freshman, he has also played this season in "Joan of Lorraine" and "The Male Animal."

At Univ. of Illinois

University of Illinois students who will be given special recognition for high scholastic achievement when Honors Day ceremonies are held April 30 include Barbara Jainea Hoand, 302 S. Main st., Mt. Prospect; Mae Bertha Grupe, Circle ave., and James Frank Mikes, Rte. 1, of Roselle; Yoshiri Hirato, Rte. 1, John H. Bingham, Buffalo Creek and Gordon E. Carnecross, 403 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights.

At Ill. Wesleyan

Miss Peggy Kruse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kruse, Milwaukee ave., Wheeling, recently attended the installation of the new Beta Gamma chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music sorority at Bradley university, Peoria.

Following the installation, a formal banquet was held in honor of the new chapter.

A sophomore at Illinois Wesleyan university, Miss Kruse is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music sorority, university chorus and Gathe.

PLYWOOD

Robert S. Steele has sued Anna Slackura in the Superior court for $5,000 damages for an automobile accident. He says that October 3, 1946, he was riding a motorcycle on Sherman ave. near Willow ave. in Northbrook. Defendant was driving a car on Sherman ave. and suddenly without any warning made a U-turn that caused a collision of their machines and he was injured.

April hasn't always been the fourth month of the year. The earliest known Roman calendar had a year ten months long, according to the World Book Encyclopedia, and placed April after Martius, then the first month. At that time, April had only 29 days. When Julius Caesar established the Julian Calendar in 46 B. C., April was made the 4th month, and was given 30 days.

Card nine pastes Warren

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Warren high school, which had just scored Niles into a last inning 4-2 victory, proved to be no match for the Arlington Cardinal baseball team as it went down before the Cardinals last Friday in a Northeast conference tilt by a stunning 20-5 slaughter, produced on just 13 hits.

Chuck Johnson won his second straight ball game of the season by pitching 5 innings, allowing 5 runs on 5 hits, walking four, and fanning seven.

The Cards got off to another 8-run first inning as five locals connected for hits. Lefty Engelking's two bagger scored Bill Lancilotti for the first tally, and two straight passes forced in Bill Robinson from third. Jim Stavros sent a timely single down the left field line knocking in Engelking and Marv Berschet, followed by Vic Heimsoth's single scoring Bill Weist.

Next, Chuck Johnson sent in Stavros on a fielder's choice, and with two gone Robinson, batting his second time, lined a double down the left field line tallying Johnson and Lancilotti for the final two runs of the inning.

WARREN found room for 1 run in this frame on two straight hits by Bandli and De Loof, with Bandli doing the scoring.

Arlington increased its lead in the first of the third by tallying one more run when Stavros reached first after the catcher had dropped the third strike, and came home on a passed ball.

However, Warren came right back in its half of the inning and reduced the margin to 9-5 by scoring 4 runs after two were out. Hart's single wiped Bandli and De Loof off the bases, and Busse's bad toss to first gave the Blue Devils 2 more counters.

From here on it was Arlington's ball game all the way. The Cards found another 8 run inning in the fourth which was marked by Bill Weist's terrific homer in deep center that scored Eugene Busse and Berschet ahead of him. The local's other five runs came on Busse's single which drove in Engelking, Robinson's double that tallied Johnson and Lancilotti, and Busse's second straight single which scored Engelking and Robinson. This big rally pushed Arlington far out in front, 17-5.

HEIGHTS pushed 2 more across in the fifth on 2 safeties. Ron Obermann led off with a home run, which took a bad bounce over the left fielder's head, and Johnson drove in Orv Schaeffer for the other score on a one bagger. The score at this point read 19-5 in favor of the local nine.

The final tally came in the seventh on Chuck Fischer's long fly to left which drove across Schaeffer and totaled a 20-5 win for the Cards.

Chuck Fischer tossed the last two innings for Arlington.

This Friday Wally Grace's charges will attempt to whip strong Leyden in a game at Leyden which has much bearing on the conference race. On Tuesday the locals will be out after Woodstock on the home diamond.

Arlington Cardinal newspaper rates
 high in nation

The Arlington High Cardinal school newspaper, was recently rated First Class-Excellent by the National Scholastic Press Association in its 38th Critical Survey of high school newspapers. This is the highest national rating the Cardinal has received in twenty years of its existence.

Twenty schools in the nation entering bi-weekly papers comparable in size to Arlington high were given the same rating. The complete list of honor ratings for papers which permit publication will appear in the May issue of the Scholastic Editor.

The Cardinal was just thirty-five points from missing the highest national award—All American. With criticisms and suggestions from the W. S. P. A. scorebook, the Cardinal shows a good chance of winning the All American for the second semester.

Ratings on a national base are (1) All-American-Superior; (2) First Class-Excellent; (3) Second Class-Good; (4) Third Class-Fair; (5) Fourth Class-No Honors.

Miss Louise Youngren is the Journalism teacher and Cardinal sponsor. This is her first year at A. H. T. H. S. Bill North is Editor-in-chief. The twelve other students of the journalism class are: Nancy Nichols, Lois Kroeber, Anne Lyman, Elaine Goewey, Joan Randing, Joan Florence, Joan Unger, Joan Dodge, Mary DeFaleo, John Shanley, Elwood Haake, and Douglas Schimmel.

New withholding tax schedules
 out this week

John T. Jarecki, Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of Illinois announced today that as a result of the passage by Congress of the Revenue Act of 1948, employers will use a revised withholding tax table beginning May 1, 1948, in order to reflect the reduced income tax rates now in effect. This table, known as Circular WT, will be mailed to every employer on or before April 23, 1948.

Mr. Jarecki also stated that it will not be necessary for employees to file amended Forms W-4 with their employers showing exemption status unless they have attained the age of 65 by the end of the year, or are blind. The new employees withholding exemption certificates (Forms W-4) that will be required from employees who will have attained the age of 65 by the end of the year or who are blind, may be obtained at the division of offices located in Chicago: Room 567, U.S. Court House, Dearborn and Adams streets; 6 North Hamilton avenue.

In addition to the addresses listed which are located in Chicago, the new Forms W-4 may be obtained by those individuals requiring them at all division and zone offices located outside Chicago but within the First Illinois District, including Des Plaines.

Dog act at circus

The most unusual of all dog acts, Woolford's Dachshunds, a clever exhibition of the ultimate in dog training, is being presented as one of the feature attractions of the Barnes Bros Circus which is now at the Chicago Stadium.

Valuable because of their blue-blooded breed, the value of these 12 little dogs, famed for their long bodies and short legs, is immeasurably increased because of the many stunts they have learned to do individually and in unison.

The Dachshunds work with equal effectiveness either singly or in unison. Standing only on their hind paws, they mount and roll miniature barrels which are resting in their side. Working together they go through intricate and highly interesting routines, performing with the precision of veteran trained animals.

Break speed records between Schaumburg and Palatine

Local automobiles are making record-breaking time between Palatine and Schaumburg. Hi Harmering, with his single cylinder car and four passengers, checked it off in 22 minutes this week. That is, going down. Coming back, he was distanced by Photographer Kramer, with Wm. blank's fast driver.

He has a good little machine and it looks well since Painter Kunz refinished it, you can't expect an auto to be in the pink of condition all the time. Hi says, wait until next year, and he will have a machine that can beat anything in this part of the country, horses included.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

Cousin Georgia's cheery voice over the telephone was a most welcomed break in this Monday morning's routine.

She began by describing the activity of the birds just outside her dining room window. Said she first noticed them while she waited at the window to watch Marcia (her daughter) walk down the country lane to meet the school bus. She said there was a great host of cracklings bent on furnishing new houses, and they kept very busy flying away with twigs, string, and whatever looked soft and downy, only to return almost immediately and begin all over. This is a dear sight to see in the Spring, isn't it?

It has occurred to me that you might like to have a copy of the two cookie recipes Georgia read to me this morning. She had previously sent a box of these cookies to Jack at school, and he said they were by far the most delicious he had ever eaten, and "wouldn't you like to make some for me, Mother," he rather plaintively inquired of me.

Since his 20th birthday anniversary takes place next Thursday, I have decided to try my luck, and hope to have a box ready to add to his presents. The cookies will probably not be as good as one's Georgia makes, for she is, without doubt, one of the world's best cooks, but here goes, and good luck to you, too!

English Toffee Cookies

1 cup of butter (the recipe doesn't say so, but I imagine you can use oleomargarine)

1 cup of sugar.

1 egg yolk.

1 teas. salt

1 teas. cinnamon.

2 cups of cake flour.

1 teas. vanilla and 1 cup chopped pecans.

Cream shortening and sugar.

Weekly recipe

For quick supper time-pickups use the age old favorite—waffles. With the touch of the "Old South", these waffles are chuck full of delicious roasted pecans, served with melted butter and old fashioned maple syrup. It's an unusual combination too, one that lends originality to your menus.

Supper Time Waffles

2 cups flour

1 tsp. double acting baking powder

1/2 tsp. soda

1/2 tsp. water

1/2 tsp. salt

3 Bowman warranted eggs

1 cup buttermilk

1/4 cup melted butter

3/4 cup pecans (cut fine)

Method: Separate eggs—beat egg yolks until lemon colored. Dissolve the soda in water and add to buttermilk and combine with egg yolks. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Add milk mixture into dry ingredients. Beat egg whites until stiff and dry and fold into all. Bake on hot waffle iron. Serve with maple syrup.

Tales

of the STREET

BY I. C. BART

BANDITS BACK

The ballots of the primary election had not been counted before those shadowy figures known as the "syndicate" were flitting around rural area of Cook county installing the old one-arm bandits in taverns and road houses.

Somewhere the word must have gone out to "open up" for those machines don't appear unless assurance has been given that it's safe to "go."

Once more Sheriff Walsh will find himself on the spot in his avowed war on gambling in his territory, which, despite his many protestations and raids "phony" and otherwise, doesn't seem to have been curbed to any great extent.

We hear that if a tavern owner doesn't go along with installing one-arm bandits he finds himself in disfavor with the boys of the County police. All of which would indicate to the average mortal there was a direct hook-up between the sheriff's office or some one close to it and the so-called slot machine "syndicate."

EDUCATION

An elderly gentleman pulled up to one of Palatine's parking meters and walked around and around in perplexity trying to find where to drop the money.

Roy LaLonde saw his perplexity and walked over. "Guess you haven't had much experience with slot machines," Roy greeted the man. "Give me a couple of pennies and I'll show you the ropes."

"So that's how it works," the old gentleman commented as he saw that the hand on the meter showed he still had 24 minutes to transact his business and be on his way again after his first encounter with the "slot" machines.

WAY BACK WHEN

We heard a lady inquiring in one of the stores if anyone could tell her where Frank Gahlbeck lived.

She had read in the paper that Frank had bought equipment and was prepared to plow gardens and this lady wanted his services.

What the good lady had been reading was the "Way Back When" news of forty years ago when Frank Gahlbeck, farmer and auctioneer, was one of the best known men in Palatine township, but Frank has been dead these many many years.

NO MAY 1 PENALTY

The 1947 tax bills will be out about May 1 according to the present outlook.

Those bills will have a May 1 penalty date for the first installment printed on them, but because of the delay in getting out the bills that May 1 penalty date will not apply this year.

No penalty date has been established yet, but property owners won't have to worry about that May 1 date on their tax bills.

A property owner has 30 days after the bills are mailed to pay his taxes so no one need worry about May 1 this year.

After the close of local township offices, the bills are payable at the office of the county collector in Chicago.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

There has been an active interest in the personal property tax scheduled this year among the new residents, many of whom are receiving those schedules for the first time and who are wondering whether or not they should pay personal property taxes.

The personal property valuation is part of the total valuation on which all taxes are levied and the tax on personal property is distributed among tax paying bodies the same as real estate taxes.

Village, schools, township, county and forest preserves all receive their proportion of the personal property tax as they do of the real estate tax.

Any deficiency in personal property tax payments means the taxpaying bodies are deprived of that much tax money and are forced to issue tax warrants just so much earlier and that a later boost in the total tax rate will have to be made to make up the deficiency.

DOWN

There was a slight falling off in parking meter take in Palatine last week when the slush fund gathered up in that thing on wheels that Officer Meyer drags around Friday mornings was counted.

The week take totaled $11.60, still far behind that $8.00 per month per meter estimated by the salesman and considerably below the amount the village dads hoped to realize from the machines.

STRANGE PLACES

Our bird neighbors are busy building their nests these days and some of them choose some strange places to make their homes. Window sills seem to be a favorite site for some robins. Other robins will nest on a main floor window ledge where vines give protection and they don't seem to mind being close to people. In fact the nearness to humanity seems to give them a feeling of security.

About the strangest place we saw for a bird nest was a few years ago when a pair of mourning doves chose the gutter of a rain pipe for their nest. There the mother hatched her young and protected them while the rain poured down and swirled all around her; the nest acted as a dam in the rain pipe and the flood waters poured over everything.

How she kept the young from drowning was always a mystery to us, but she did it until the youngsters were able to leave the home base under their own power and when they were gone there were only a few scattered sticks and a few chunks of mud left.

MAC'S RELAYS

Saturday of this week, the 16th annual relays will be held at the field of the Palatine high school.

The track meet was started by G. A. McElroy sixteen years ago and for fifteen straight years Mac has had ideal weather for the big meet.

That relay meet has become famous for its ideal weather and with the largest meet in history on the cards for this Saturday, everyone is pulling for Mac's luck to hold for another of his ideal days.

Invocation

April, April, what can you bring
To make the sad heart leap and sing?
Bring Wordsworth's thousand daffodils
That glory on this fair page spills
Bring shy anemones and cool
Shaken and mirrored beside the pool
Bring us the silver slanting rain,
Cleansing the winter's scar and stain;
Give us the green of winter wheat,
Life everlasting repeat, repeat;
Bring at last peace to all oppressed
When earth in virgin beauty is dressed
April, April, bring now new birth
To all the wayward peoples of earth.

—SAMUSER.

The Silver Fire

Grace Nell Crowell

BY FAITH I drink the water in my cup;
I breathe the air and trust that it is pure;
The bread I break at evening as I sup
I take believing that the loaf is sure
To be quite clean. At night I go to sleep
And journey through a strange and darkened land,
With confidence that God has power to keep
His never-failing hold upon my hand.

By faith I rise to meet my busy day.
Sure of the sun, I plant and hoe my seed,
Knowing that rain and light will take their way
Across the earth, that my immediate need
For food will be supplied. By faith I go Trusting in God and in my fellow-men,
And if at times that silver fire burns low,
It never fails to lift and burn again.

BENSENVILLE

It has been some time since I wrote you for publication, but after a strenuous winter and with summer just around the corner, we want to let all our many friends know we are still among the living.

After spending last summer here on Puget Sound, we expected to go back to California, but Mrs. Sampson became ill and that kept us from making the trip.

She became weaker and weaker until January 20 we were advised to try the grape cure. For weeks she had only grapes for grape juice every two hours from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Then for some time she took other fruits in place of the grapes.

Now she is taking grape juice to begin and the day, but also has raw vegetable salads, tomatoes, buttermilk or other fresh fruits, but only one fruit at a time. Also, she now is gaining strength and can set up for a while daily.

We are nicely situated on an arm of Puget Sound where fish and oysters are plentiful. Have had a mild winter with only a couple of snow flurries that did not stick to the ground.

We see Bensenville is fast becoming a live business town and the businessmen are taking advantage of advertising more than they used to when I was trying to boost the Old Home Town.

I am looking ahead to the Milk Vets convention in Milwaukee this September and if Mrs. Sampson is well enough so that I can leave for a couple of weeks, I plan to drop down and see old friends and again step into the Register printing office.

My daughter, Virginia, her husband and their 3-year-old daughter live in Portland but spend week ends with us.

We have enjoyed the many get well cards our friends sent us and the many Christmas cards, too. With best wishes to one and all and hoping to some day renew old times together.

LIKES CHIEF

The writer has been a resident of Arlington Heights for the last seven years and although not a consistent reader of your publication the other members of my family have been.

Your editorial of April 16th has been brought to my attention and it was with a great deal of disgust that I digested its contents.

I believe you made a serious mistake in publishing the contents of an anonymous letter.

I also believe you did a great injustice to a fine man and a good public servant when you mentioned the name of Police Chief Skoog in this editorial. I am not a personal friend of his; our contacts have been purely on a social basis, but I admire the man and believe he is a credit to our community.

Under the circumstances I believe you owe him a public apology for mentioning his name in connection with an anonymous letter.

LIKES PAPER

We are living in Motels again as after the 15th summer rates are in effect in Denver, with five day limits on all rooms.

I enjoy my paper so much. It's good to know Arlington Heights is growing so fast. I hope to be able to surprise everyone back there with a visit soon.

YOU CAN'T WIN

In answer to the unsigned letter sent to you by some person, who has the nerve to discuss the problems of the community face to face. I would appreciate it if you can insert the following article in the next issue of the Fence Post.

How true it is.

Did it ever occur to you that a man's life is full of crosses and temptations? Why? He comes into the world without his consent. He goes out of it against his will. The trip between is exceedingly rocky. The rule of contraries is one of the features of this trip. When he is little, the big girls kiss him. When he is big, the little girls kiss him. If he is poor, he is a bad manager. If he is rich, he is dishonest. If he needs credit, he can't get it. If he is prosperous everybody wants to do him a favor. If he is in politics, it is for graft. If he is out of politics, he is no good to the country.

If he doesn't give to charity, he is a stingy cuss. If he does, it's for show. If he is actively religious, he is a hypocrite. If he takes no interest in religion, he is a hardened sinner. If he gives affection, he is a soft specimen. If he cares for no one, he is cold blooded. If he dies young, there was a future for him. If he lived to an old age, he missed his calling. If you don't get it, you're a bum. If you do get it, you're a grafter. If you spend money, you're a loafer. If you save it, you're a tightwad. So what's the use, anyway?

Always Sign,
W. W. Luehring, Trus.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Not long ago I received a letter from one of my readers requesting a more complete explanation of sincerity.

"You say one should be sincere," my correspondent asked. "But you failed to state as clearly as you should—just what you mean by sincerity."

Well, about as near as I can put it, sincerity is being what you are without any frills or trimmings.

Everyone is acquainted with the person who pretends to know all of the great books, when actually he has read no farther than the title page, or perhaps only the author's name or only the name of the book. That person is pretending to be well read, is living a lie, and no doubt more people than myself have discovered his shallow knowledge of literature. That man is insincere. It is not displaying ignorance to admit that you have not read all of the books in the world.

You know the man or woman who strives to attain the poise and mannerisms of some movie star, or some great person. Sometimes they succeed to a remarkable degree, and are highly flattered when they are told by others that they act and look like Tyronne Powers or Betty Grable. To me, and to many others, they are very shallow.

One cent for every 12 minutes.

afraid of being themselves because they feel that they are not all they should be. There are the really religious souls who go around with their lips tucked down, and a sad, sweet smile of holy resignation on their face. It has been my experience that the most noisy political prophets are about as accurate as a bursted thermometer. And as for the sweet, sad religious souls, their religion consists mostly of ridiculing others in order to shine by comparison.

Most of the really religious persons I know of are cheerful, actually friendly people, always ready to give you a lift, with their sincere friendliness. Sincere people are not pretenders. They do not flatter, or pretend a friendliness they do not feel. They are what they are. The better character a person has, the less insincere he needs be, because he does not have to prove what is evident at a glance.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND CAMERA CLUB NEWS BY Lew Green

Spring is here, and almost everybody's fancy will soon turn to snapshooting. The camera will be dusted off after a winter of hibernation, loaded with Verichrome film and packed along on the spring visit to the relative who lives in the country. . . . "Great possibilities for some swell pictures," you tell yourself, and soon after arrival of the all starts. The group stands together . . . gazes at the camera . . . the command . . . "smile" . . . then "click" . . . next a picture of the new baby, held by the proud father . . . a picture of the new house, a snap of the children together and then the trip home. The film is taken to the camera store and about a week later it is picked up with that great feeling of anticipation and excitement . . . the prints are pulled out of the envelope, and . . . "Aw nuts!" The group is headless . . . the baby?

"EXPRESS" by Irv Rinker . . . taken with a Kodak Reflex 1/100 of a second at F. 11 on Verichrome film with a K2 filter. Film developed in D76 for 17 minutes.

CLUB NEWS:

The latest assignment by the Arlington Heights Camera Club was "Trains". At the April 7 meeting, prizes were awarded for the best prints on this subject. Irv Rinker, Arlington Heights, copied first place in class "B" with his picture, "Express". This is a great example of what can be done by a little serious application. Mr. Rinker is one of the newer members of the club, and has only recently started making his own prints.

... well, you remember now, the father didn't want that bright sun in it's little face . . . so it's a good picture of the old man holding what looks like it might be a baby . . . the kids? . . . that was the one you forgot to wind the film to the next exposure, and the kids are all mixed up with a swell picture of the house . . .

THIS ALL might sound exaggerated but it is exactly what is happening to a big percentage of our snapshooting Americans every day. The following simple rules will prevent most of the common errors made by the beginners and occasional snapshooter.

1. If the camera has a focusing device or a footage scale . . . focus it correctly or step off the distance . . . don't guess.

2. Be sure of the proper exposure either by using an exposure meter or a simple exposure guide.

3. AVOID "out of plumb" pictures. Line up vertical lines with subject . . . keep camera level.

4. Double exposures will be eliminated if you get the habit of winding the film immediately after taking the picture.

5. Do not crowd the film . . . leave ample room around the subject . . . this will prevent "cutoffs" . . . The view finder is on the camera for a purpose . . . use it!

6. Use a cable release if possible; if not, press the shutter release like you would squeeze the trigger on a target pistol . . . easy does it . . . no more headless relatives.

There are countless other faults, but the aforementioned are, by far, the most abused . . . We will give tips on better picture taking in future articles in this column. We will also try to answer any questions or problems that are sent in concerning picture taking.

QUESTION DEPT . . .

Q. How do I eliminate face shadows in bright sunlight?

A. The easiest method is by Synchro-sunlight flash. By popping a flash bulb you can eliminate the shadows, and, at the same time, retain all the background and surrounding detail. The other method is by reflection. A piece of white cardboard, a sheet, or a newspaper held at right angles to the sun (like you would flash a mirror), and reflecting the light back into the shady side of the subject, you will greatly improve the picture. This is the way Hollywood handles their outdoor location shooting. You can make a very fine reflector by pasting tin foil (from cigarette packages etc.) on one side of a cardboard about 20" by 24" in size.

Q. What should a person buy to start doing their own developing and printing?

A. It depends upon the ambition of the individual. The Eastman ABC kit will enable one to develop their films and make good contact prints. After this has been mastered, the inevitable enlarger is next, and at that time, it might be a good idea to visit a camera club meeting and ask a few questions. You will find that the members will be glad to offer advice and you can profit greatly from their experience.

REMEMBER . . . your camera and film are good . . . give them a chance to prove it.

SUES FOR DAMAGES

Ralph A. Wheelock of Wilmette has sued R. L. Wyatt and L. W. Coons for $10,000 damages in Circuit court for a mixup in real estate. He states the defendants are Glenview realtors through whom he bought in 1945 five acres of land in Northfield from W. J. Boyle for poultry raising. Wheelock says he had buildings built on this tract and then found that the land description is wrong and he has suffered much loss thereby.

THE DOCTOR'S NOTEBOOK

By DR. CHARLES H. KRAMER

There is nothing more hectic than pumping strychnine-containing mouse poison out of a two-year-old's stomach. And nothing more unnecessary. The conscience-stricken mother of this inquisitive tot suggested that a note of warning about the common household poisons—which parents leave invitingly about—might avoid similar mental agony and self-condemnation in the future.

ACCIDENTAL POISONING is unusually common among children and is invariably due to carelessness by the parents. Children are inherently curious and have a natural tendency to pop everything experimentally into their mouths. Because they are more susceptible to small amounts to toxic substances, many things ordinarily considered safe may be dangerous for a child. A five minute tour of basement, closets and cupboards will convince the reader that in his own home there are a dozen or more potential killers accessible to exploring children. I know—one look at our lower kitchen shelf convinced me!

A POISON is a substance, which, when taken into the body in a small amount, may cause death or serious injury to a healthy person. According to this generally accepted definition, I would class these household items as poisons:

Powerful drugs which are in common use: digitalis, the barbiturate family (phenobarbital, seconal), benzedrine, atropine and belladonna, all narcotics, the sulfa drugs, benadryl and related drugs, thyroid, tincture of iodine and other antiseptics, quinine, nitroglycerin, butesin picrate, and ointments containing phenol.

COLD REMEDIES such as camphor, the usual nose drops, oil of eucalyptus, argyrol, silver nitrate, calomel.

Patented medicines or obsolete preparations: headache powders, weight-reducing pills, "tonics", herbal preparations, tincture of nux vomica, and the like.

Household accessories: bowl cleaners (Sani-Flush), solvents and cleansers (turpentine, benzene, naphtha, gasoline, carbon tetrachloride), disinfectants (lysol, bichloride of mercury, cresol, carbolic acid), caustics (drano, lye, Bon-Ami), bleaches (Chlorox) and ammonia.

EXTERMINATORS: rat biscuits, mouse seeds, camphor moth balls, insecticides (Flit, DDT), ant and roach killers, fumigating agents (cyanide, formaldehyde), fruit and vegetable sprays.

Miscellaneous substances found in or about the house such as rubbing alcohol, wood alcohol, wild mushrooms, rhubarb leaves, lighter fluid, carbon monoxide from stoves or furnaces with poor draft, boric acid crystals, fuming nitric and other corrosive acids, and deodorants.

The obvious poisons are not nearly so dangerous as the seemingly more insignificant ones. The practice of keeping turpentine in an old whiskey bottle has given many a thirsty prowler the shock of his life! Rubbing alcohol instead of mineral oil, taken in the middle of a night, has a similar effect. Last summer an otherwise cautious and observant mother put drops intended for the eyes in her six-year-old's nose; the girl nearly died during the mad rush to the hospital. A fifty-eight year old man recently died following accidental ingestion of a 5% DDT insecticide.

A FEW SIMPLE precautions regarding the use and storage of potential poisons, if put into practice today, will set your mind at ease and add years to your family doctor's life.

1. Keep all potential poisons out of children's reach, preferably in a locked drawer or cupboard. (They love colored capsules, tablets, strange liquids.)
2. Separate the dangerous drugs from other medicines.
3. Poisons should have a distinct warning as well as antidote on the label.
4. Always read the label on bottles or containers before using the contents.
5. Never take anything out of an unlabelled bottle.
6. Use the powerful drugs listed above only on the advice of your physician.
7. Do not habitually keep exterminators around the house; use less dangerous preparations whenever possible.

Just in case you think this is a great ado over nothing, next week I will tell you what to do when your child swallows that rat poison you've been saving since last summer...

Questions on G. I. bill

Record increase in use of state library

A 51 per cent increase in the use of Illinois State Library materials by residents of the state for the first three months of this year as compared with the same period in 1947 has been reported by Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett, state librarian.

The total increase for the first quarters of the two years for both reading and art materials was 142,141, the state librarian said. The quarterly totals rose from 278,279 in 1947 to 420,420 in 1948.

The greatest single factor in the total increase, Secretary Barrett said, was the rise of 75,113 in the number of reading materials lent through the Library's six regional headquarters.

The next largest item was reading materials lent to schools, communities and other groups, which rose 57,045, from 138,059 to 195,104, for a 40 per cent increase, Mr. Barrett reported.

All Illinois residents may use Illinois State Library materials, Secretary Barrett pointed out, either through their own local libraries, through the bookmobiles and rural deposit stations functioning under the program of demonstrations of library service or by direct mail in areas where there is no local service.

ing permanent Federal employment as fireman (stationary boiler), welder, meat cutter or baker.

Applications must be filed with the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners for the Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, Illinois, not later than May 12, 1948.

Des Plaines ups many tax rates

Maine township collector R. C. McGregor reported the new tax rate for the city of Des Plaines has increased by 25% over 1946. However, bills will be about the same as last year because of the equalization factor of 1.26.

Only taxing body to really jump its rate terrifically was the grade schools who are requiring a rate of 1.052 this year as against .61 last year. The grade schools lowered their rate in 1946 and due to an error on their part did not levy sufficient to operate on. Their increase had been expected.

City of Des Plaines rate was upped from .47 to .55 or a 17% increase over the previous year. Maine high school rate for this year is .662 as compared to .62 for 1946. A less than 7% increase.

At florist's school

Glenn Pasvogel of Pasvogel's greenhouses is in Chicago taking a special short course for florists at Bright's School of Floral Design.

By taking this schooling the up-to-date florist keeps in touch with all the latest developments in the floral business. He learns the principles of floral art which enable him to make lovelier floral arrangements for the public.

SUES FOR DEATH

Rose Anderson, administratrix of the estate of Robert P. Anderson, minor, has sued C. J. Hinzelman in Circuit court for $15,000 damages for causing his death with an automobile October 8, last. The boy, aged 10, son of Andrew Anderson, was walking on the shoulder of Milwaukee ave., in Wheeling when defendant, driving at high speed on the shoulder, although there was plenty of room on the paved portion, hit the boy and fatally injured him.

ILLINOIS LAW PROVIDES A PENALTY for the following: Driving livestock down a railroad right-of-way (within its fences) with out the consent of the railroad; damaging railroad fences or guards; leaving gates at farm crossings open; leaving horses or other animals standing on farm or road crossings.

5. When a company neglects to build or repair its fences and farm crossing gates, the owner of the land adjoining the railroad may give written notice to the company to build within 30 days or repair within 10, as the case may be; and if the company fails to comply the owner may do the work himself and recover double the value plus 1 percent a month interest until paid.

The laws referred to are in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 114, Sections 53, 55-57.

Veterinary college to open this fall at Univ. of Illinois

The University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine will be activated this fall with the acceptance of a small freshman class, Dr. Robert Graham, dean of the college, announced today. Pre-veterinary students were accepted at the University in 1945.

Until funds are available for construction of permanent buildings to house the college, a former student residence structure will be used for offices and laboratories to accommodate the freshman group. The former veterinary pathology laboratory also is being remodeled for teaching purposes. Only small classes can be accepted until the new buildings are completed, Dean Graham said, because the training of veterinarians requires classroom, laboratory and hospital units.

The College of Veterinary Medicine was established by the University of Illinois Board of Trustees in June 1944, and building funds were appropriated by the state legislature in 1945 after curriculum and building needs had been determined by a special committee.

Shortages of building materials and labor made construction impossible at that time. Further delays have resulted from increased construction costs and the fact that the original appropriation is now insufficient to complete the college's building project.

Dean Graham said that an official announcement of the new college and its curriculum will be printed and would soon be available.

LAW on the FARM

RAILROAD FENCES AND CATTLE GUARDS. By Illinois law every railroad company shall "... erect and maintain fences on both sides of its road—sufficient to prevent cattle, horses, sheep, hogs or other stock from getting on such railroad..." and also shall "... maintain at all road crossings—cattle guards sufficient to prevent cattle, horses, sheep, hogs and other stock from getting on such railroad..."

The law further provides that "... when such fences or cattle guards are not made, or kept in good repair, such railroad corporation shall be liable for all damages which may be done by its agents, engines or cars to—(stock on its tracks)." The following facts are important in connection with this law:

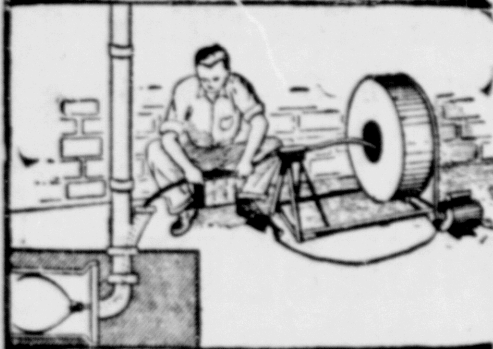

1. One suing and recovering damages from a railroad company is by law entitled also to reasonable attorney's fees.

2. If the railroad company maintains adequate fences and guards and keeps them in good repair, it is not liable for injury to livestock unless "... negligently or willfully done."

3. The Illinois courts have interpreted this law as imposing an absolute duty on railroads to maintain adequate fences and guards. The policy of the law and of court decisions is expressed by this statement from an Illinois case: "The design of the statute was to require and compel railroad companies to fence their tracks so as to prevent animals from getting upon them, thus affording safety and protection to the traveling public, as well as to the owners of stock." Reported decisions show a great deal of variation, however, and some points seem to be unsettled.

Plant with care, beet farmers advised

A good seed bed is the foundation of profit-making sugar beet yields, the Sugar Beet Journal says, and farmers can do no better than to take extra care in fitting one.

Try to attain a firm, rather fine, seed bed by breaking down clods and leveling off dips and humps, it suggests. Floats are unexcelled for this, the publication declares, pointing out that farmers can easily and inexpensively construct one from 2x8-inch planks 20 feet long, with the wearing edges shod with angle iron. Or, it says, steel floats or small land planes can be purchased for from $165 to $250. Level seed beds are a "must" for the best stands and efficient spring or fall mechanization, it says.

If a farmer has to choose between a good job of seedbed fitting and a few days delay in planting, he should not hesitate to make the seed bed as good as possible, the Journal cautions.

Guard young pigs against parasites

Farmers with young pigs that "eat their heads off" without growing should have them checked for worms, says Dr. M.
E. Mansfield, extension specialist, University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine.

Pigs farrowed and kept in in-sanitary hog lots sometimes pick up internal parasites when they are only a few days old, Doctor Mansfield states. At this age infection with only a few worms often causes unthriftiness.

Many times young pigs may become infected with worms before the farmer realizes they are unhealthy. By that time they are so seriously affected that they may never fully recover. Such pigs seldom make a profit.

DOCTOR MANSFIELD says
there are two ways to fight parasites of swine. Drugs may be given to expel the parasites from the pigs, or the farmer can outwit these enemies to pig health by raising his animals under sanitary conditions. Drugs are not always effective, because the medicine may not reach the worms. Sometimes the drugs cannot kill the parasites until these enemies are full grown—and by that time the pig's health may be undermined.

When pigs are raised on clean pastures, they stand a good chance of escaping infection.
Good results are reported when the McLean county system of swine sanitation is carefully used.
It should be remembered that clean pastures grow clean pigs. Permanent lots and pastures are hotbeds for parasite infections.

Brooder house razed by flames; loss $10,000

A large brooder house on John F. Cuneo's Hawthorn farm along Butterfield rd., was destroyed by fire early Friday. Three thousand and chicks were also destroyed.
The loss was estimated at $10,- 000.

A passing motorist discovered the fire about 1:15 a. m. and aroused a tenant. The Libertyville fire department was called.

Bits O' business

Some control of manpower is

Refrigeration Is Vital Factor In Preserving, Storing Farm Produce

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Refrigeration always has been an important factor in farm life. For generations farmers have tried to produce satisfactory "cold conditions" by means of ice, water, root cellars and farm house basements.

STRAWBERRIES—it won't be long now until they'll be packaged and
"freezer bound" again.

That these cold storage facilities have proven inadequate in many ways is no fault of the farmer. For there was a time when there were no better methods known and no suitable equipment produced for use on electrified farms. The outlook, however, has changed in recent years due to the rapid growth of rural electrification which has brought modern refrigeration appliances into widespread use in farm homes.

Today, the farm wife, who used to store perishable products in the basement, places them in a modern electric refrigerator. It saves her considerable time, costs only a few cents a day to run and keeps farm produce fresh, regardless of the weather.

In addition, she can obtain a farm and home freezer—a super-cold appliance for freezing meat, vegetables and fruit, and for use as a frozen "pantry" for the storage of such products. Freezers are used in three ways on the farm: To freeze and store home processed food, for the storage of commercially frozen packaged foods, and as an auxiliary unit to be used in conjunction with locker plants. In the latter case, large quantities of food are processed and stored at the plant, with freezers used to "hold" food which is removed from lockers in sufficient amounts to keep the family supplied for periods of a week or more. By following this procedure, farmers eliminate frequent trips to lockers, for they can arrange such visits to conform with normal farm-to-town travel requirements.

Food must be properly prepared, packaged and sealed before being placed in the freezer. Good food will stay good in freezers, but freezing does not improve the quality of poor or improperly processed food. Zero is a satisfactory temperature for longtime storage of frozen foods. A temperature of 10 degrees Fahrenheit is adequate for storage of from 2 to 3 months, and 20 degrees for storage of from 1 to 2 weeks. Exceptions are ice cream and frozen foods in syrup, for which storage temperatures should be zero to 10 degrees, even for short time storage.

Farmers shouldn't turn cows to pasture early

"The following suggestions," says Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes
"have been sent from the University of Illinois with reference to turning cows on pasture. We believe the first suggestion is probably the most valuable because farmers very often are anxious to get their cows out, and their pastures are immediately overgrazed, and do not recover during the whole season.
We would suggest that if only one point of the five suggestions are observed, number one is of most importance.

Also, we find that frequently the pasture is the neglected part of the farm. This has been brought out very clearly in our soil test work. The farm pasture, almost every time, is much lower in phosphate and needs more lime than the rest of the farm and our suggestion is even now, if you have a little fertilizer scatter some on the pasture and keep doing this until fertility of the pasture is built up and a little later on when weeds get bad you can take a few hours off and mow the pasture and blue grass will, in a measure, take the weeds' place."

1. HOLD YOUR COWS off pasture until there is a good growth of forage. Dairymen who turn their cows on pasture before it is well started are likely to have poor pastures all summer unless the season is exceptionally favorable and the acreage per cow large. Enough plant food is stored in the roots to give the grass a start, but after that reserve is used the plant must have leaves out in the sunshine before more leaves and stems can grow.

2. Change to pasture gradually.
Before you turn your cows on pasture, give them the regular feeding of roughage and grain.
Continue this practice each morning for the first few days they are on pasture. Some dairymen limit the time the cows are on pasture each day until they become used to the change.
Changing gradually from dry feeds to pasture will help to precollege students the story of free enterprise through plant tours by students and talks by business leaders in schools and colleges

The 20-cow herd of registered Holstein-Friesians owned by Dorothy Hammerstein, Palatine, has recently completed a year of production testing in the official Herd Improvement Registry program of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.
An average of 425 pounds of butterfat and 11,672 pounds of milk has been officially recorded. Milking was done twice daily.

The highest producer in the herd was Four-O-Dairy Mooie Segis, a 5-year-old, which produced 585 pounds of butterfat and 17,711 pounds of milk.
Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois, in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it obligatory for a guest to speak to her hostess before leaving a reception?

A. Yes, she should express appreciation of the pleasure she has had, unless it is a very large affair and the hostess is engaged in receiving or entertaining other guests.

Q. Is it all right to say, "Mr. Jones, shake hands with Mr. Smith" when introducing two men?

A. No; this expression is very crude. If the two men are well-mannered, they will shake hands without being instructed.

Q. Is it permissible to break crackers or bread into the soup?

A. No, this is not good form.

Q. Would it be all right for a man to buy an engagement ring before he proposes to the girl?

A. No; unless he thinks there is no possibility of the girl refusing him. Usually, though, the girl should have something to say about the choice of the ring, its style, color, and so forth.

Q. How should one place the knife and fork after finishing a course at the dinner table?

A. Parallel across the plate, with the handles to the right.

Q. If someone "cuts in" on one's partner at a dance, would it be proper to "cut back" on this man a few minutes later?

A. No; but you may "cut in" on the third man if you wish.

Q. Is it the duty of the hostess to introduce each guest individually to all the others when giving a small luncheon, or allow them to fend for themselves?

A. It is her duty to perform all the introductions.

Q. If someone "cuts in" on one's partner at a dance, would it be proper to "cut back" on this man a few minutes later?

A. No; but you may "cut in" on the third man if you wish.

Des Plaines School FIRST in NATION with THIS NEW LOUVER LIGHTING!

LIGHT WITHOUT GLARE PROVIDED BY "SKY-GLO"

New Experience in Seeing Made Possible with Luminous Ceiling

Never before lighting like this! The entire ceiling is aglow with a new brightness WITHOUT GLARE! The average footcandle level on the desk tops is 103...three to twenty times more light than the average value of artificial illumination in school buildings! Yet there is no awareness of high illumination...no annoying sensation of "too much light."

"Sky-Glo" is an achievement made possible by combined development efforts of the Bakelite Corporation and the Benjamin Electric Mfg. Co. It is the adoption of the new material, Rigid Vinylite, that makes possible a ceiling that glows with light for stores, offices, schools.

The latest development of the so-called louver-all type of lighting, "Sky-Glo" consists of pre-fabricated stock sections of louvers, channels and fittings, designed for new buildings or renovation of old buildings.

The louvers provide crosswise and lengthwise shielding angles of 45° thus shielding almost completely from view the fluorescent or incandescent lamps used for illumination. Thus "Sky-Glo" provides uniform illumination without the forest of lighting fixtures which would be necessary to obtain an equal level of lighting.

Two Arrested On Charge Of Accepting Captain Thomas

New Benjamin "Sky-Glo," the ceiling that Actually Glows with Light!

Here, in Classroom 102 at the Central School of Des Plaines, Illinois, is to be found the very latest development in lighting. The installation of this new "Sky-Glo" ceiling was made possible by the cooperation of the Benjamin Electric Mfg. Co., the Des Plaines School Board and Superintendent Smaage.

With this new type of lighting system, the pupils of Room 102 learn with less physical fatigue because this lighting provides an atmosphere which best enhances their natural capacity for learning. School officials and teachers report favorable results: Pupils take additional interest and pride in their new environment... A calming atmosphere pervades the classroom... Scientific studies give every reason to believe that this new lighting development will result in definite improvement in the pupils' postures, work habits and mental alertness.

Editors and educators who visit this noteworthy lighting project designate it an important answer to the growing need for better school lighting. It is creating widespread interest; articles about it are being published in school and technical magazines.

The members of the Des Plaines School Board and Mr. Smaage are to be congratulated on their progressiveness and their continuous efforts to improve learning environment, an important factor in the educational advancement of every student.

"Sky-Glo" is just one of the many new Benjamin developments and advancements aimed toward Better Lighting for Better Vision. It represents a product of combined efforts by your neighbors at Benjamin, bringing us closer to the day when all America's school children will have classroom illumination in which they can better prepare for citizenship and a Brighter Tomorrow.

At Benjamin, we shall continue to do our part towards that end.
